FROM WASHINGTON.

Dividends of Suspended National Banks.

A Two Hours' Session of the Cabinet.

The Secretaryship of the Interior and Mississippi Affairs Discussed.

WASHINGTON, October 15, 1875.

National Bank Dividends.

The Comptroller of the Currency has declared a dividend of fifteen per cent. in favor of the creditors of the First National Bank of Topeka, Kansas; also a dividend of forty per cent. in favor of the creditors of the Gibson County National Bank of Princeton, Ind., payable on the 20th inst.

Postmasters of the Senate.

V. E. Creary, of Michigan, has been promoted from Assistant to Postmaster of the United States Senate, and C. C. Jones, of Minnesota, has been appointed Assistant Postmaster.

Cabinet Meeting.

The Cabinet was in session over two hours, and a large amount of routine business was considered. There was some conversation on the subject of the appointment of a Secretary of the Interior, but no appointment will be made until next week. It is the general impression that the President is waiting for a response from a gentleman to whom the offer of the appointment has been made.

The Attorney General stated to the Cabinet meeting that he is in receipt of information which he deems authentic, to the effect that both parties in Mississippi have agreed to terms which will prevent further troubles in that State, and a peaceable election is confidently anticipated.

Mississippi Affairs.

Ex-Senator Pease, of Mississippi, to-day received the following dispatch:

"JACKSON, Miss., October 14.—Military operations have been suspended by Governor Ames, based upon the most ample and minute assurances of leading citizens of the State that there shall be peace and a fair and free election. They would not undertake to answer for the lawless, but guarantee to aid the civil officers in the execution of the laws. The Governor expresses himself wholly satisfied with the assurances given, and believes that they are made in good faith, and will be carried out. An improved feeling prevails, especially among the whites, and general discipline and peace prevails among all classes. Good citizens are greatly encouraged.

Chippewa Indians.

A delegation of South Chippewas, from Minnesota, visited the Indian Department to-day. They left their agency, obtaining permission from their agent, and were four weeks on the road, paying their expenses by dancing, &c., at different places. A half-breed with them acted as interpreter. They came to complain of their agent, and desired to remain here until an interpreter could come from the Mission to present their case properly. Commissioner Smith told them under the circumstances he could not keep them, and advised them to return at once.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 15, 1875.

Business Suspensions.

Moses S. Herman & Co., of 22 Walker street, the principal member of which is a brother of A. S. Herman, who recently went into bankruptcy, have failed. The firm's liabilities are stated at $200,000, and the assets at $95,000, $50,000 being stock and $45,000 in bills receivable.

Harris Rothstein, a hatter, has failed, and has made an assignment of his property for the benefit of his creditors. His liabilities are given at $37,669.58, and his assets at $12,045.

Indiana, Bloomington & Western R. R.

A meeting of the stockholders of the western extension of the Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western Railroad Company was held to-day. A committee appointed to examine into the financial condition of the extension reported that from December, 1874, to July 1, 1875, the earnings were $82,981, and the expenses $78,916. The smallness of the earnings was attributed to low freights, general stagnation in railroad business, and the fact that the road is in the hands of a receiver. The main road earned in the same time $720,264. The extension is now earning $35,000 per week—more than it did during the time covered by the report of the committee.

Haytien Affair Settled.

A telegram has been received by the Haytien Minister advising him that the Canals affair has been settled (according to the terms agreed upon at Washington) to the satisfaction of all parties, and the refugees have been embarked.

A Colored Man Killed.

While some colored men were returning last night from a picnic, held in the outskirts of Brooklyn, they were attacked by a number of whites. One of the negroes was instantly killed by the blow of a stone, and another was fatally injured. The police arrested seven men engaged in the assault.

LATEST FOREIGN ADVICES.

TURKEY.

Insurgents Defeated.

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 15.—The following news is official: A force of 2,000 insurgents has been defeated by Turks. One hundred and six were killed. The rest took refuge in Montenegro. Seventeen village hitherto strongly insurgent have submitted to Turkish authority.

The Last Refuge of the Insurgents.

LONDON, October 16—6:30 A. M.—A special to the Standard says the Turks now hold the district of Seubcis, the last refuge of the insurgents.

SPAIN.

The Note to the Vatican.

MADRID, October 15.—The Epoca of this city has an editorial article explanatory of the note recently sent to the Vatican. The note, says the Epoca, points to the religious condition of Europe, and makes the assertion that Spain cannot be exceptional. It expressed a wish to negotiate for a modification of the article of the Concordat of 1851, which can never be executed.

INDIA.

Homeless People.

LONDON, October 15.—The Times of India says 20,000 people are rendered homeless by the floods in the neighborhood of Ahmedabad, in the province of Guzerat.

THE SOLDIERS' REUNION.

A Grand Parade at Indianapolis—Veterans of the Wars of 1812 and Mexico Present.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 15.—The soldiers parade to-day was a grand affair, and was witnessed by crowds of people, who thronged the streets from the east at Camp Morton to the halting place at the State Capitol grounds. Private residences and business houses along the line of march were handsomely decorated. Howe's magnificent band from Peru led off, followed by the 1812 and Mexican veterans. The first on the wagons leading the Mexicans was the identical First Regiment flag of historical renown carried by Stevenson, who bore it through General Taylor's campaign of 1812. There were fully a score of survivors of aged, decrepit forms, but still showing the fire of youth as they added their cheering to the enthusiasm which surrounded them. After arriving at the State House Senator Morton was introduced, and spoke at length, and was followed by Gen. Gresham.

THE IOWA ELECTION.

The Republican Majority Over 30,000.

DES MOINES, October 15.—The State Register has returns from seventy-four counties, in which the net Republican majority is 24,529. It is estimated the Republican majority will reach about 30,800 to 31,000. Advices to-day report one further gain in the Senate for the Republicans, Wilson, of Jackson. The dispatches to-day make some changes in the House, but the relative standing of the two parties in that body remains about the same as estimated late last night.

THE WEATHER.

OFFICE OF THE OBSERVER, UNITED STATES SIGNAL SERVICE, PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 16, 1875—1 A. M.

Probabilities for To-day.

For the lower lakes, the Middle and Eastern states, rising barometer, northwest to southwest winds, falling temperature, cloudy weather and rain, clearing in the two first districts during the day.

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

The Races at Gallatin, Tenn.

GALLATIN, October 15.—First race, mile heats; won by Sue Wynne. Time 1:50¾ and 1:50½.

Second race, 1¼ miles dash; won by Sallie Gardner. Time 2:45.

THE OHIO ELECTION.

Hayes' Majority for Governor 4,753.

Twenty Republican Majority in the Legislature.

The Balance of the Republican State Ticket Probably Elected.

The Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee on the Rampage.

TOLEDO, October 15.—A special to the Blade says Wood county gives Hayes 469 majority; also, that both the Republican candidates for Senators are elected, and that the returns from the entire county show 220 majority in favor of Perrysburg as the county seat.

COLUMBUS, October 15.—Returns have been received from all parts of the State, which are considered as correct as can be obtained until the official returns are received by the Secretary of State. These show Hayes' majority in the State to be 4,753. The official returns may vary the count by 300 either way. The Republicans have a majority of seventeen in the House of Representatives, and three majority, and possibly four, in the Senate. All the balance of the Republican ticket is probably elected, but official returns must decide their respective majorities. The interest in the election has remained at fever heat until the returns from Wood county to-day settled the political complexion of the Senate.

COLUMBUS, October 15.—The following decisive dispatch has been published by Hon. John G. Thompson, in response to the card of the Republican Committee:

Hon. H. B. Wright, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia: I observed in the Press of to-day a card signed by the Republican State Executive Committee, in which I am charged with willful falsification when I asserted that "the Democratic vote is 20,000 larger than was cast for any man ever elected Governor of Ohio. Our defeat was the result of the most lavish expenditure of money which ever characterized a political contest, the colonization of fraudulent voters, and the introduction of the false issue on the public schools, which excited the prejudices of bigotry of religious hate." The denial is marked by the same subterfuge which has been practiced by the Republican Executive Committee throughout the contest when it has appeared in public. It will be observed that the denial is only given to that part of my dispatch which refers to the frauds perpetrated and the lavish expenditure of money, and this qualified by the contemptible ruse that the Republicans of this State had not contributed the money for corruption. I am aware of the fact that the Republicans of the State contributed scarcely a tithe of the money used, and the qualifications of the Committee are a weak invention. I unhesitatingly reassert every statement of my dispatch. The Republican Executive Committee, like all parties who commit crime or who are accessory thereto, realize the infamy, and, like the criminals, are quick in denial. A thief or a murderer pleads not "Not guilty" when arraigned. Would the Republican Executive Committee do less?

(Signed) JNO. G. THOMPSON, Chairman Executive Committee.

ANOTHER BRIDGE TROUBLE.

The Dispute Concerning the Structure on Penn Avenue.

The difficulty between the city and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company regarding the bridge just completed by the latter on Penn avenue, in East Liberty, is because of the fact that the structure is about a foot above the grade of the avenue. City Engineer Dempster has declined to approve the plan and accept the bridge in behalf of the city, on the ground that it was not the understanding that it should be placed above grade. He does not wish to assume the responsibility of raising the grade, and have the city pay damages to parties whose property will be thrown below it. City Solicitor Bigelow, after consultation with the attorneys of the Pennsylvania Railroad, submitted to them the following proposition: The Railroad Company are to construct temporary approaches and throw the bridge open to the public at once. The question as to whether the terms of the contract were properly observed by the company is to be submitted to one of the Common Pleas Courts. If it decides that the company did not disregard the terms, the city will construct the permanent approaches and be responsible for damages. If the contrary be the decision, the company will build the approaches and be responsible for the damage. Messrs. Hampton and Dalzell, counsel for the Railroad Company, have the proposition under advisement.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Meeting of the Suffrage Association Last Night.

A meeting of the Woman's Suffrage Association was held last evening in the First U. P. Church.

The first business was the reading of a paper by Mrs. Jenkins, on the Woman's Congress, which is now in session in Syracuse, New York. The subject was admirably handled by the lady. She spoke of the good results that arise from the assembling of women to confer upon important subjects, and anticipated the securing of some tangible results in the way of legislation ere long.

Miss Matilda Hindman delivered an address upon the necessity of bringing into the Government the moral power of the woman of the nation, in order to counteract the influence of the ignorant and wicked who have attained supremacy in the political world. She thought that with women assisting in directing the ship of State, politicians would no longer have to yield to the wishes of the class of which she spoke.

After a short conference of all present, the meeting adjourned.

THE GOVERNOR'S MOVEMENTS.

Places He Will Visit This Month.

Monday and Thursday, the 25th and 26th, inst., will be spent by Governor Hartranft in this city and vicinity. He will attend a meeting in Beaver county, most likely at Beaver Falls, on the evening of the 26th, and on the day following, Wednesday, the 27th, he will be present in the morning at a meeting at New Castle, in Lawrence county, and in the evening at Sharon, in Mercer county. He will spend Thursday, the 28th, at Meadville, and Friday will be devoted to Venango county, visiting Oil City in the morning and Franklin in the evening. On the morning of Saturday, the 30th, he will visit Corry, and proceed from thence to Titusville, where he will spend the evening. On Monday, November 1, he will reach Butler, and after mingling with his friends there will return to this city and depart for home on Tuesday, November 2.

Marion Harland's Address.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

Yesterday (Thursday) Mrs. Terhune (Marion Harland) read her paper, entitled "Our Daughters," to one of the most crowded houses, consisting of ladies, ever assembled in Pittsburgh. It was designed to be nothing more than a familiar talk to the members of our Christian Conference, collected in Dr. Howard's church, but about two o'clock the lower rooms were filled to their utmost capacity, and they saw the necessity (for they were still pouring in) to announce that we would have to adjourn to the main body of the church. Everybody knows what the rush and commotion of such a large body would be, and as they passed the committee room, (like an incipient whirlwind,) in which Marion Harland was sitting with some of our lady reporters, she very naturally inquired the cause, and was told she would have to read her paper in the church. Her face became paler than usual, and she answered, "How can I do it? I have never occupied a pulpit in my life." Her dear, good, Christian friend, Miss Tucker, who accompanies her, and is also one of our delegates, leaned over and whispered, "Be brave—be strong; God will help you!" and truly He did, for she rose, amid the gaze of hundreds, and read her paper (not too closely), with only a little perceptible tremor in her voice.

The subject, &c., will be given you by our lady reporters, upon whose office I would not voluntarily infringe, filling it, as they have done, so creditably; but I could not omit giving you this little episode of our yesterday afternoon's proceedings. VIGIL.

SELECT COUNCIL.

The Sinking Fund Ordinance Referred to the Finance Committee—Petitions Presented.

The second special meeting of Select Council this week was held yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of considering the ordinance vetoed by the Mayor on Monday last, and which provides for the application of the Sinking Fund to the payment of interest on bonds issued under the Penn avenue act. The members present were Messrs. Ahl, Aiken, Rodgers, Barckley, Braun, Breed, Brown, Bruce, Buckley, Carr, Clark, Daenels, Darlington, B., Darlington, H., Evans, Fetterman, Harrison, Herron, Fahnestock, Hunter, Jeremy, Sawyer, Kernan, Kerr, Kestner, Knapp, Littell, Metzgar, Meyer, Finley, Moore, Murray, Musgrave, McClurg, O'Neil, Ray, Schild, Shipton, Taylor, Vierheller, Weldon, and President Gross.

Forty-four votes being required to pass the ordinance over the veto, and that number not being present and no prospects of getting it, Mr. Aiken moved that the ordinance be referred to the Finance Committee, so as to keep it in the reach of that body.

Mr. WELDON desired to know the object in view in referring it to the Finance Committee.

Mr. METZGAR seriously doubted whether such a disposition could properly be made of it.

President GROSS said the ordinance was before Council, and they could refer it or not, as they deemed best.

Mr. AIKEN explained that the object in referring it was because the number of members present was not enough to pass it over the veto, and if sent to the Finance Committee it could probably be so amended as to meet the Mayor's views and then introduced again as new business.

The motion finally prevailed.

Mr. METZGAR moved to adjourn, but the ayes and nays were called and the motion was lost by a vote of 22 to 17.

The rules were then suspended, and the following unfinished business was taken up:

Ordinance establishing a public wharf on the South Side, between First and Sixth streets. Lost.

Ordinance authorizing the opening of McCandless avenue, from its eastern intersection with Stanton avenue to its western terminus at the same. Lost.

Mr. BUCKLEY presented an ordinance repealing an ordinance for the opening of Grandview avenue, from Washington to Sherman avenues. Referred.

Mr. WELDON, petition for grading an alley running parallel with and between Elm and Cedar streets, Sixteenth ward, for a distance of six hundred feet west of Liberty avenue. Referred.

Mr. BREED, petition of Brown & Co. to be relieved from the payment of business tax assessed against—Owens, in the Fourteenth ward. Referred.

Mr. BROWN, petitions of John Willinger and Martin and John Ehman for abatement of assessment on public sewer on Twenty-seventh street, Twenty-fourth ward, South Side. Referred.

Mr. BRAUN, petition of David Sullivan for exoneration from payment of over-assessed business tax. Referred.

Also, petition of Jeremiah Nellis for compensation for damages sustained by the killing of his horse in the public street. Referred.

Adjourned.

DOES YOUR ROOF LEAK?

If So, Try Glines' Slate Roofing Paint, the Only Remedy for Old Leaky Shingle, Tin or Felt Roofs.

This article is endorsed by most experienced architects and builders, as combining beauty and durability with fire-proof qualities and cheapness to an extraordinary degree, is a valuable aid in building or repairing roofs, every community must hail with satisfaction, particularly where piers, factories, rolling mills, and general manufacturing establishments are located. Its testimonials are most numerous, reliable; well worth the investigation of all real estate owners and farmers who have an old roof to mend, and preserve, or a new one to lay; an article free from tar, ready for use, low price and easily applied with positive satisfaction, either as an ornament or for effectually stopping every leak! Proving the most economical roofing known to modern invention or skill, and having so many sterling points, it has achieved such a wide-spread popularity and unrivalled reputation as to be in active demand throughout the United States and Canada; its patrons are thousands, and the production not only exceeds in magnitude that of all other similar roofings combined, but is unequalled in quality. Complete materials for a new steep or flat roof costs but 4½ cents a square foot, and the strict economy of making an old shingle roof fire and water-proof unites beauty with utility. These goods are commercially known as Glines' Rubber Roofing and State Roofing Paint.

For circular containing particulars call at 54 Ninth street, where it can be had by the gallon or barrel. JOHN T. GRAY, Sole Agent Western Penn'a.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MATTERS.

The Normal Class Movement.

The notable success of the Pittsburgh Sunday School Normal Class, in the Spring, awakened such an interest in the Normal Class movement as to suggest the formation of a Union Normal Class, undenominational in its character, embracing all of the Sunday Schools in Allegheny county. To this end a joint meeting of the Executive Committee of the Allegheny county Sunday School Association and a committee representing the Pittsburgh Sunday School Normal Class, was held last evening, and action looking to the formation of a Union Normal Class for the county was taken. The regular Fall meeting of the Pittsburgh Sunday School Normal Class, for organization, will be held on Tuesday evening next, at the Smithfield street M. E. Church, and the action of the joint committee invites each Sunday School in the county to send at least three representatives (more, if possible,) to meet and act with the Normal Class at the above organization meeting. The general Normal movement will then be inaugurated, and promises well.

NEW CROP MOLASSES.

First Arrival of the Season.

As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, the well known house of John S. Dilworth & Co., wholesale grocers, 130 and 132 Second avenue, has received the first lot of new crop N. O. molasses. This arrival is unusually early in the season, and is characteristic of the enterprising firm which for the past twenty years has always been the first to offer new crop molasses to the trade.

The house makes a specialty of N. O. sweets, and merchants who desire a first class article should not fail to give them a call. They have also on hand a large and well selected stock of general groceries which they offer at the lowest market rates.

WOMEN'S CONFERENCE.

The Last Day of the International Gathering—Greetings from Massachusetts—A Fitting Response—The Closing Proceedings of the Conference—Farewell Words.

Yesterday was the last day of the Women's International Christian Conference, and it proved as interesting and instructive as any of its predecessors. Some of the delegates who resided in distant States left for home on Thursday evening, but there was a large attendance of delegates and visitors at the hour of opening. The first half hour as usual was taken up with devotional exercises, conducted by Mrs. Adams, of Cleveland. The exercises were brief, spiritual, and impressive. Promptly at the hour for business the President took the chair, and the proceedings were opened by the singing of the hymn commencing

"Jesus, and shall it ever be,
A mortal man ashamed of Thee."

After roll call and reading of the minutes, a telegraphic salutation from the Young Men's National Christian Association in session at Fitchburg, Massachusetts, was read. The greeting was as follows:

"To the Women's International Christian Convention now in session in Pittsburgh, Greeting:

Second Thess., 1st chap. 11, 12 verses: "Wherefore, also, we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power: That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ."

After the receipt of the greeting a committee consisting of two young ladies was appointed to prepare a proper response. After a short consultation the committee reported the following:

"Woman's International Christian Conference, to the Young Men's National Christian Association at Fitchburg, Mass., Greeting:"

Ephesians 3d chapter 14-21 verses. "For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that he would grant you according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye being rooted and grafted in love may be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth and depth and heighth, and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God."

The reply was approved and transmitted.

Mrs. Davis, of Cincinnati, then made a short verbal report on the Foreign work.

Mrs. Terhune made a report of the National Home work. By this it appears that there are forty-eight associations in active operation throughout the States, all working in sympathy and harmony with each other. She said they of New York, were in total ignorance of the existence of Women's Christian Associations until enlightened by the Rev. H. Thane Miller, of Cincinnati, who urged them to commence the work and aided them in organizing.

The proceedings were here pleasantly interrupted by a letter received by Mrs. Brunot, giving a report of Woman's work in Neufchatel, Switzerland. On being translated and read by one of the young lady reporters, the President made a few feeling remarks, saying in substance, that "the language was unfamiliar to many of us, yet when translated, we found the sentiments those of every Christian heart."

A paper was then read by Mrs. McCready, of New York, on "The Distinctive Work of Young Women's Christian Associations."

Mrs. Winters, Vice President, next read a list of questions which had been sent in, and as Chairman of the Committee appointed to answer these, proceeded to do so. This was a very interesting and instructive exercise.

A proposal from railway officials to place at the disposal of the ladies a car to enable delegates to visit the Old Lady's Home and Sheltering Arms, at Wilkinsburg, was received, but on account of threatening weather regretfully declined.

Mrs. Winters said that though she was not in favor of secret societies, yet like them she desired to have some watchword. She suggested "Mizpeh"—"The Lord watch over thee and me, when we are absent one from another"—as appropriate. This idea was endorsed and the watchword adopted.

Mrs. Brunot was appointed to convey by letter deep love and sympathy to those foreign bodies which had communicated with the Convention through her.

Some business of not much public interest was here attended to. Invitations from Montreal, Boston, and Cleveland, were received to hold the next biennial Conference. After remarks from Mrs. Brown, on the good that might be accomplished by holding the meeting there, Montreal was decided upon. After lunch some unfinished business was disposed of, and the following resolutions adopted:

1. That the thanks of this convention be extended to the press of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, for their liberality in giving the reports of our meetings the space they have allowed in their columns.

2. We desire to thank the ladies who have acted as reporters, and to express our appreciation of the admirable manner in which they have discharged their difficult and important trusts.

3. We return thanks also to the trustees of the church for use of the building to officers of the Exposition, and to railroad officials.

Mrs. Terhune thought they might express their state of mind in the language of Little Tim: "God bless us every one."

A half hour was then spent in devotional exercise of a tender character. Remarks were made, among others by Mrs. Terhune. She said she had noticed how often, in the reports, we hear it said: "We will not here speak of the discouragements in our work—only the results." And to those who are engaged how much of sad meaning there is in the words. She wanted to encourage them by giving a homely illustration. One dark, misty evening, in the illness of her coachman, she was compelled to drive to the depot to meet her husband. However much of moral courage, she might have she had but little physical, and was in mortal terror of spirited horses, and particularly dreaded a piece of darkly wooded road. She prayed for courage and drove in thinking, perhaps, it would not be so dark, but that she could see the wheels and the horses and a little of the road, and so she found it. And thus always we had light sufficient given for every step we were required to take in our religious life, although the way at times seemed dark and full of danger. At the close of these remarks a last prayer was offered, and the Christian friends, whose mingling together for several days had been so pleasant and profitable, exchanged farewells.

The Conference was a great success. It brought together active and zealous Christian workers, and the interchanges of views and experiences of actual work were alike suggestive, inspiring and instructive. It strengthened the golden chain of sympathy which binds the associations together, and gave a fresh enthusiasm to those who had long been engaged in the work, as well as enlisting the interest of many who heretofore have not fully appreciated the incalculable importance of woman's Christian work for woman. Socially, too, it was a delightful season of communion between kindred spirits, and spiritually to many its influence was "as the dews from Hermon." The remembrance of it will long be fragrant in the ranks of the Christian workers who participated in it, either as outspoken workers or by their presence, or prayers.

BREVITIES.

Paragraphic Pencilings of Passing Events.

....The glass trade is reported brisk.

....The court proceedings and our usual Saturday morning column of religious notices will be found on the second page.

....The sale of reserved season tickets for the Library Lecture Course commenced yesterday morning, and a goodly number were disposed of.

....The funeral of the late Wm. H. Brown, yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. The remains were interred in Allegheny Cemetery.

....The puddlers of Zug & Co.'s Sable Iron Works met on Thursday, to discuss the propriety of compromising with their employers for five dollars per ton. The puddlers generally seemed to be willing to work at this figure.

....A Republican mass meeting will be held this evening at Williamsburg, above Brownstown, on the South Side. The Twenty-sixth ward and Central Marching Clubs will attend, and the assemblage will be addressed by J. S. Haymaker, Esq., Hon. M. S. Humphreys, H. J. Bigger, Esq., and J. C. Baird, of the Herald.

....Two hard looking specimens of old city scrip were presented to the Finance Committee yesterday afternoon for redemption. One of them was a two and the other a three dollar bill, issued in 1837. They were pronounced by experts to be counterfeits, and the Committee therefore decided not to redeem them.

....The Sewickley Lecture Committee is preparing a lecture course for the ensuing season, and have already secured Dr. Geo. P. Hays. Rev. S. F. Scovel, Hon. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Professor Kidd, elocutionist, and the Allegheny Quartet Club. They are also in correspondence with the "Tennesseans," for one of their entertaining concerts of Southern plantation melodies.

....An assessment claim for $1,073.84 against C. B. Seely was filed in the Common Pleas Court No. 2, yesterday, by Mr. Bigelow, City Solicitor. Mr. Seely's property fronts on Penn avenue, from Beatty street east a distance of 108 feet, and he was assessed in the above sum under the Penn avenue act. The plaintiff asks that if, under this state of affairs, the Court should determine that the assessment is not derogatory to the defendant's rights, judgment be entered in the city's favor for the above amount and costs; but if found the contrary, judgment be entered for the defendant for costs, either party to have the right to take out a writ of error to the Supreme Court.

....The event of the past week in society circles in Sewickley was a double wedding, which occurred at the residence of Mr. Wm. Harbaugh, Esq., on Thursday evening. There was a large attendance of the friends of the principals, and shortly after eight o'clock Rev. Dr. Bittinger united, for the better or worse, Mr. Alexander Nevin to Miss Phrone Harbaugh, and Mr. Harry Moore to Miss Carrie Harbaugh. The lady attendants were Miss Carrie Wimer, Miss Alice Irwin, Miss Beckie Knox and Miss Mamie Harbaugh. The presents were numerous and elegant, the congratulations hearty and sincere, the social cheers infectious, and the happiness general. A special train brought the city guests home, and the bride-grooms departed eastwardly for separate tours.

PERSONAL.

Dr. S. S. Cheney, who was killed at Columbus, Kansas, on the 24th ult., by James McCormick, was a brother-in-law of Mr. J. T. Schaffer, of Sheffield street, Allegheny.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 117.

IT seems to be considered, by the so-called hard-money organs, that the demand for the repeal of the Resumption act is entirely in the interest of the inflation idea. This is a very decided mistake. We believe the effect of the repeal will be to hasten, rather than to delay, resumption. At all events, it will not exert a detrimental influence on resumption, but rather the contrary.

WE notice that certain journals, in dealing with the 3-65 interconvertible bond question, deny that at certain periods there is a surplus of currency, say in the intervals between the crop moving period. This is an error; there is such a surplus in inactive times. The absurdity of the 3-65 bond proposition is, that it proposes to take care of the surplus money of capitalists, and pay interest on it, in dull times, when they cannot use their money to better advantage. No government ever attempted such a thing.

THE departure of the Venezuelan Minister from the Hague, a short time since, points to a rupture of diplomatic relations between two powers that have little, and no real cause, to quarrel with each other. Holland, just now, has the Atchenese war on hand, with Germany casting threatening glances toward her. Venezuela is presided over by an adventurer, who was aided by Holland influence in gaining power. At best, the Venezuelan Government is poor, and illy prepared for war. Yet both powers are full of the spirit of fight.

OUR readers will observe that the old American Tract Society is to celebrate its semi-centennial in our city, at the First Presbyterian Church, on Wood street, on Sunday evening. When it is known that associated with its labors among our destitute populations over 11,000,000 families have been reached and visited by its colporteurs, over 400,000 religious meetings held by them, over 13,000,000 volumes circulated, employing 220 such laborers, and granting nearly 80,000,000 pages of truth, the last year alone, the meeting ought to be an interesting and a full one.

THE statement of the Chicago Times that Secretary BRISTOW's family brought over from Europe eighteen trunks, which were taken from the steamer on a tug, and kept out of the way of Customs House officials is, of course, a falsehood, which was at once and effectively exposed. It is amusing, however, to notice the terrible and lofty anger of the Washington Chronicle over the event. A column of severe invective was found to be necessary to fairly explain how deeply it was aggrieved. There is something even tragical in the fury displayed, and the wonder is whether it would be so much excited over such a report, if it only affected, say plain JOHN JONES. The truth is, the atmosphere of Washington is sadly suggestive of flunkeyism, and its worst expression comes from the press, which, in the main, is dependent on Government patronage for its very existence.

THE Post seems suddenly to have taken in a vast quantity of bile, which it is now emitting from day to day. We have tried for a long time to educate that journal up to a philosophical standard, but really it is a discouraging task. After we have devoted several months to the task, and laboriously wrought it up so that it is willing to admit that others may disagree with it, and not be absolutely and entirely depraved, along comes this terrible Ohio election, and our work is gone in a moment. It falls back at once into its old depths, and is the same sour, acrimonious institution it was before. The old file of its discontent is brought out, and it groans at it with becoming fidelity. Good neighbor, be not as the half reformed drunkard, ready to fall back into the old habits again, but lift up your head, and prepare to sweetly submit to another defeat in Pennsylvania, and to lay aside all hope of power in the nation for many years to come. It is an old experience, and you should be used to it.

THE Women's International Conference, in session at Rev. Dr. HOWARD's Church, is an organization that deserves the sympathy and confidence of the general public—particularly the Christian public. As a rule, deliberative organizations, made up of ladies, seem very unfortunate, in that the light-headed and demonstrative very generally obtain control, and mislead the body. But the ladies constituting this Conference seem to be a serious, earnest body, intent on ameliorating the condition, not merely of the sex, but of promoting Christian work and social good, everywhere. Some of the papers read were very able, and what is to be specially remarked, were elaborate and practical discussions of very important questions, that relate to the moral and physical good of certain classes. The Conference does not present any appearance of confusion, at any time, but is calm, dignified and deliberative. We have not thought it necessary to discuss subjects brought before the Conference, as we have no purpose to intrude ourselves where we have no right to be; but we can generally commend what has been done, and particularly applaud the general spirit and aim of the Conference. It is wisely engaged in a good work.

THE attempt making by one or two city papers to create the impression that the bills for official printing, now pending before Allegheny Councils, are illegal, and, therefore, unjust, is only a piece of petty spite work on the part of those sheets, and is not at all consistent with the facts of the case. In the first place, Councils, in 1874, elected the three official papers according to law. These papers did the work given them properly throughout the year. By the terms of the ordinance under which they were chosen, they continue to be the official printers until their successors have been selected. Councils this year failed to elect city printers, chiefly because of the pendency of an ordinance changing the method of their selection. In that case the papers chosen in 1874 continued to act, and properly, too. The Mayor, the Treasurer, the Comptroller, the City Clerk, and all other officials, recognized the fact that they were properly continuing to discharge their duties until their successors should be chosen, and handed these papers the proclamations, ordinances and other printing required by law to appear in the official papers throughout the year. If these papers are not the official printers, then are all the ordinances, including the Appropriation ordinance, assessments for streets, sewers, &c.; in a word, all the work of Councils is void, if the printing is not legal. If they are the properly authorized papers, then their bills ought to be paid without further objection. In any event the printing was authorized by Councils themselves in these papers, and the attempt of some of our contemporaries to make it appear that unjust bills are asking payment is simply unfair. The official papers are charging for the work done just 25 per cent. less than the established rates of the Pittsburgh press. If these papers are not under contract to do the city printing, the question naturally arises, what is to prevent them from charging one-fourth more than they are asking? The work has been done properly by authority of Councils, and we have no fears that the bills will be paid, when the subject is understood rightly.

WHAT IS BEFORE US.

The Ohio election has been rejoiced over, and it is now time for us to begin to look in the face the suggestions and lessons it naturally teaches. We should not, for a moment, think of sitting rejoicingly down and allowing the wave from Ohio bear us easily along. If we think of this, the victory there will prove a disadvantage, rather than a benefit. He is a successful General who vigorously profits by his victories, and that is a successful party which is inspired to greater efforts by its triumphs. Many a victory has been frittered away by an overplus of rejoicing, and a failure to prosecute the success to its utmost limits. The Ohio election has given the Republican party the most perfect moral precedence in the canvass pending in this State. The Democracy see the handwriting, and are fear-stricken and discouraged. Evidently this is the time to press the battle, in all parts of the State, with all the vigor it is possible to command. The people are not so fully aroused as they should be, and it simply requires that the issues before us be set forth vigorously to bring out a large vote for our ticket. We do not fear defeat, even assuming that the canvass is pressed no more vigorously than it is now. But we owe it to the Republican party, and to the Presidential contest next year, to gain a triumph in Pennsylvania that will show that the relapse of last year was nothing more than a temporary reaction. The people are ripe for a grand triumph, but we must put on "the arousements."

2. The canvass in Ohio shows the importance of an aggressive attitude. The greatest feature of the contest there centred on the struggle for the aggressive position. There was never, probably, a greater concentration of speaking ability in any State canvass than that in Ohio. The secret of it all was the stern, unyielding, and even desperate struggle to gain an aggressive position. The Republicans succeeded in overcoming their opponents in this particular, and succeeded. The New York Tribune, which is Democratic, with a thin veneering of independence, complains that in this State the Republicans hold the aggressive attitude, but claims that this aggressiveness is losing its force. While this is untrue, it is worth noticing. The Republican press, so far as we have noticed, has generally refrained from assaults on the private character of the Democratic candidates. But their public records were so bad, that these have been exposed fully and freely. The Democratic press have silently and tamely submitted, except the feeble attempt of their Philadelphia organ, the Times, to shield PERSHING from the charge of having tried to disfranchise our soldiers at the front. It was shown that he was a venomous copperhead, active in his hostility to the war for the Union, a servitor of corporations as against the people, an opponent of the repeal of the tax on real estate, and a particularly bitter hater of the colored race. Public data was provided, showing day and date for all these charges. Silently and stupidly, the Democratic press received these terrible statements. Now, however, they have aroused just far enough to say that these things do not hurt much. They have evidently watched,—and the lesson is that the bad, corrupt, and even vicious records of PERSHING and PIOLLET must be kept steadily prominent.

3. The attitude of the Democracy on the currency question is open to the severest assault. The main purpose of their currency declarations was, and is, to convince the people that they are for wild and absolute inflation. HUGHES' speeches, in and out of the Convention, prove this. He declares that greenbacks are money, and constitute resumption in themselves. Yet in the face of this purpose, the specific declarations of the platform show what inextricable confusion and ruin they would bring upon us could they have their way. They first offer the lying declaration that the Republican party, by the Resumption act, has brought business adversity, by contracting the volume of currency! The currency is not contracted, and the Republican party, as such, did not pass the Resumption act. Forty-seven Democrats voted for it, to sixteen against. They further declare for the abolition of the National banks, and the substitution of State banks. As we have shown, to make such a radical change, will require the calling in of all debts due the National banks. These amount, in round numbers, to about $1,400,000,000. To compel the people, at this time, to pay these debts, would bring ruin and desolation such as we have never seen in this country before. Finally, they demand that the currency remain as it now is. We submit whether persons or a party, capable of making such a jumble, can safely be trusted with the financial management of the country at all. These points should be pressed home.

Finally we have the Temperance issue. We much regret that our temperance friends should so fully stand in their own light as to actually seek to aid the Democratic party. The Republican party has given this Commonwealth all the temperance legislation it ever had. Last Winter a Republican Senate saved all from the wreck of the Local Option repeal that we now have,—a rigid license law. Two questions have been asked us,—"Why did not the Senate refuse to join in the repeal of the Local Option law?" We answer, because the House threatened to retaliate by stopping necessary legislation. "Why did the Governor sign the repeal?" Because the Legislature was elected on that express issue, and represented the will of the people. Suppose a Legislature was elected to enact a prohibitory law, and did so, would not our temperance friends be highly aggrieved, if the Governor should set up his private judgment and veto it? The rule followed by the Governor is the only one that is safe.

We now urge our Republican people to work. The time has come for the most vigorous efforts of the canvass. The victory is legitimately ours, and we have only to put forth a suitable effort to swell it to one of great magnitude. Work and triumph, is the motto now.

To help their Ohio brethren the Democrats of this State turned their backs on their last year's platform at Pittsburgh, repudiated the councils of all their statesmen of the past, quarrelled with the Eastern Democracy; denounced their leading newspapers in New York, and abused and ridiculed unmercifully Governor Tilden, the New York candidate, and the most available candidate they had. Their humiliation is complete, and they can never rally from their discomfiture. They have staked all and lost all.

FROM COLORADO.

Politics—The Fair Season—Railroads—The Gold and Siver Mines.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

CENTRAL, COLORADO, Oct., 5 1875.

The election for a Legislature and for county offices for this Territory occurred last month, and the spoils of office were about equally divided between the two great political parties. An election occurs October 25th, for delegates to the Convention that is to frame a Constitution for the new State. Politicians are already busily engaged in pushing their chances for the positions to be filled when Colorado becomes a full-fledged State. This Territory is so evenly divided, politically, that the result of the various elections to come cannot be predicted with any certainty.

The territorial and various county fairs are now over, and very creditable displays were made in stock, farming products and minerals. The vegetable and grain yield of these Colorado ranches is often wonderful, and render the husbandman's avocation one of the most remunerative and desirable that can be followed.

Colorado's 650 miles of railroad will soon have an extensive addition by the extension of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road up the Arkansas to Pueblo, making the third through line to the East. The Denver & Rio Grande, a local narrow guage road already 160 miles long, is being pushed southward towards Mexico.

At the close of last month Jefferson Davis, once President of the Southern Confederacy, arrived in Denver and visited the principal mountain and plains towns before starting eastward.

Ex-United States Marshal Shoffenburg, of Denver, has been indicted on charges of fraud against the Government, and his case is likely to prove a very serious one. The amount said to have been dishonestly secured or retained is nearly $75,000, and, if reports are true, the most ingenious modes of swindling were resorted to, some account of which has already been extensively published.

The mines are producing much more gold and silver than during any previous season. The Mt. Lincoln silver mines have in many instances prodigious masses of ore in sight, and those of Georgetown will alone produce $3,000,000 during the coming year. At Central, where are located the richest and most extensively developed gold mines of this part of the country, the yield of the dirt mines is surpassing all former precedents.

Of the many mines operated here none are turning out better than the Western of Kansas, where that lode and the Burroughs are united in one huge, strong rich vein. In the lower workings this four feet crevice extends a distance of six hundred feet through the Waterman and Monmouth claims and downward into the earth indefinitely. The main shaft on the Waterman is six hundred and ten feet deep, the lower, seventy-three feet of which passed through one unbroken mass of mineral that returns in stamp mills from sixteen to thirty dollars per ton, while the selected ore sells at smelting works at from eighteen to one hundred and twenty-five dollars per ton. Such large quantities of high grade mineral is seldom found, and this enables the owners to realize unusual profits. The Monmouth claim will clear fifty thousand dollars this year, and the Waterman far more, although these figures are small compared with what they will be after this month when the mines will be arranged for more extensive and rapid operations than in the past. Before these mines were taken hold of by James C. Fagan, they had lain idle for several years by reason of their failure to pay. They have since been found to improve vastly further down—and so it is with countless other lodes that could be mentioned.

One advantage in the mining of the present day over that of the past is the consolidation of mining properties—so that one firm or individual can operate one, two or three thousand feet of territory. A vast amount of expense in the way of machinery, men and incidentals is thereby saved over what would be where the same number of hundred feet are operated singly.

The Caribou silver mines are generally paying well, and no district can boast of better mines than many that are found there. Their average yield of silver to the ton of ore is between two and three hundred dollars, while from those at Georgetown during the past year the average value of all ore mined was $234 per ton. This is a much better showing than can be made in any other section of the west.

On motion of D. T. Watson, Esq., Wm. Byrnes, Esq., was admitted to practice in this Court.

United States District Court.
(Before Judge McCandless.)

John S. Allen, bankrupt, Butler county. The creditors having chosen George W. Brown, of Youngsville, as assignee, the same was approved.

Henderson Rodgers, bankrupt, Butler county. Same action taken in this as in the above case.

Francis Ardary, bankrupt, Pittsburgh. The Register's report on the petition of C. L. Magee, Treasurer, approved, and the assignees directed to pay said treasurer the amount of $3,063.29, taxes due.

R. M. Childs, bankrupt, Butler county. The Register's report on the petition of Henry Bole, a judgment creditor, confirmed and assignee directed to apply certain moneys to the payment of said claim.

Carrier & Baum, bankrupts, Pittsburgh. The hearing of rule to show cause why the adjudication should not be revoked and proceedings in bankruptcy dismissed, was fixed for the 16th inst.

Common Pleas Court No. 1.
(Before Judge Sterrett)

In the case of J. H. P. Summers vs. Wm. Dillon, owner, and Michael Tevens, contractor, the jury found for plaintiff for $70.50. This was a scire facias on a mechanic's lien.

The jury was withdrawn and the case of Devore & Walker vs. James A. Russell and Peter G. Sylvus, impleaded with William A. Crusan.

Common Pleas Court No. 2.
(Before Judge Ewing.)

This Court was engaged yesterday in hearing cases on the argument list. Jury trials will be resumed on Monday.

Criminal Court.
(Before Judge White.)

The cases of Nicholas and Emma Fredericks, which we reported Thursday, as being on trial, were disposed of by the acquittal of Nicholas Frederick on both counts, and the acquittal of Emma Frederick of larceny, but her conviction of the charge of receiving stolen goods. She plead guilty to eight other charges of larceny.

S. R. Spence was acquitted on a charge of receiving stolen goods.

W. J. Dorsey was found guilty of assault and battery.

Wm. Dobbins was also found guilty of a charge of assault and battery, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs and enter into his own recognizance in $500 to keep the peace for one year.

The case of John Dewaine and James Neely is on trial. They are charged with larceny from the person and receiving stolen goods.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 16, 1875.

The volume of business at the banks yesterday was not large, yet in the falling off there was nothing indicative of loss in the general aggregate of business. There has been since the first of October, and particularly since the bank statements were made up, a general improvement in banking business, the demand for discounts being particularly large. The Exposition begins to show its good offices to the business public of Pittsburgh,—the inflow of people being now quite large, and very many of those who come stay over the night, and during the time they are out from the Exposition transact business in the city. A more cheerful face is presented, and the outlook is for a better trade this Fall than was anticipated a short time since.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean says of the money market of that city: The local money market continues active in the one particular that the country banks are still very large borrowers. The extent to which this is being done this Fall is a new feature in this money market, and the bankers here feel rather good over it, because it furnishes profitable employment for funds which could not be used in local loans in the present condition of trade. It is also very significant in the respect to which we called attention a day or two ago, viz.: that the increasing wealth of the West enables her traders to hold the products of the country for better prices. The West is not only doing this, but is also paying its debts to the East, which is indicated by the large demand for New York exchange—larger this Fall than in any previous one.

On the 30th of June the total amount of greenback notes lodged for safe keeping on special deposit in all the sub-Treasuries of the United States was $64,270,000. On the 30th of September it had been reduced to $60,660,000, and the probabilities are that by the end of the current month the public debt statement will show but little over $50,000,000. The withdrawal of these notes from the Treasury for actual use in trade is a healthy sign of the increase of trade.

The following statement from authentic European sources shows the sterling amount of specie in each of the national banks in September, 1875 and 1872:

	Specie Sept., 1875	1872
Bank of England	£28,085,000	£22,137,000
Bank of France	64,900,000	31,211,000
Bank of Prussia	25,160,000	25,326,000
Bank of Belgium	3,726,000	5,063,000
Bank of Austria	13,735,000	12,701,000
	£135,606,000	£96,438,000

From the foregoing figures it will be seen that the contest between France and Prussia has resulted in the accumulation of $195,000,000 more specie in the five great banks than they had three years ago. But this is not all. It is well known that the Imperial Government of Germany has created a great military chest, which is believed to contain an enormous amount, and which is hid away and jealously guarded in some fortress. It is a moderate calculation to estimate that during the three years the accumulation of specie by the five Governments and their banks has been $300,000,000.

During the three years since September, 1872, the entire product of gold in the United States (say $110,000,000) has been exported to Europe, and the United States Treasury now holds $67,750,000, against $73,000,000 in September, 1872, thus showing that about $115,000,000 of the accumulation in Europe has been drawn from the United States. Nor is there any probability that this movement will be reversed as long as France, England, and Germany are contending for the financial supremacy of the commercial world. Nor is there any probability that it will be reversed as far as the United States is concerned as long as we owe a debt of about $1,500,000,000 to European holders of all sorts of American bonds. American credit is good enough in Europe to enable us to borrow without any specie resumption here, and as long as we continue to borrow it makes specie resumption the more impracticable, because it takes all the specie we can raise to pay the interest. An instance of the continued borrowing came to hand yesterday in the Boston Advertiser, which mentions with some show of pride, that "Messrs Kidder, Peabody & Co. have just placed the whole amount of the Massachusetts loan in London at par. This, we believe, is the highest rate ever obtained, and is a good indication of the excellent credit which Massachusetts enjoys in the London market. The amount was £267,000."

There is no reason that we know of why the Government of the United States should not borrow money at as low rates of interest as any other Government on the face of the earth, save the one reason of the eternal war waged upon the administration and its financial policy, ever since the breaking out of the rebellion in 1861, by the Democratic party North and South. This war waged by the Democrats creates an uneasy feeling in the money centers of the world where American politics are not as well understood as they ought to be, and a fear exists that that party might get into power, and when in power might carry out the financial doctrines they preach from the stump. But in spite of the Democracy, and in spite of this real or pretended fear, the Republican administration is succeeding in replacing the American loan at 5 per cent., nearly five hundred millions of dollars having been so placed during the past year! And the reader will please bear in mind that this saving of 1 per cent. of interest on the national debt, is a saving of seventeen millions of dollars a year to the tax-payers.

NEW YORK, October 15, 1875.

The money market was easy at 2a3; prime mercantile paper 6a7. The imports of dry goods were $1,918,000. The customs receipts were $411,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $135,000. The clearings were $58,000,000. Sterling was demoralized. Bankers' bills 477a481. The feature of the day in Wall street was an advance in gold and distressing rates extorted for its use from those obliged to borrow. Gold opened at 116½, advanced to 116⅞, reacted to 116¾, and closed at 117, the highest point of the day. The rates paid for borrowing were 3-32, 1-16, 5-64, 7-64, 5-32, and finally 1-32 per diem. Governments were firm and in good demand. In railroad bonds Union Pacific firsts declined to 103, and Chicago & Northwestern consolidated to 96. Ohio & Mississippi seconds advanced to 65, O. & M. consolidated sold to 89, and Milwaukee and St. Paul gold 7s to to 88½. State bonds were quiet.

On the Cotton Exchange to-day the suspension of C. J. Ketchum & Co., C. B. Camp and Dufar & Ebert was announced. The last named firm say they are even with the market, but they want their contracts closed at once. These failures were caused by the rise in cotton, the firms above mentioned being on the short side.

The stock market opened firm and higher, except for Erie and Missouri Pacific, the former declining from 16⅜ to 15⅞, and the latter from 17¼ to 15½. Western Union rose from 74¼ to 74⅞, Pacific Mail from 36 to 36¼, Lake Shore from 53½ to 54, Northwest from 34½ to 35¼, St. Paul preferred from 61⅞ to 62¼, Union Pacific from 67⅜ to 67¼, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western from 118¾ to 118⅞, New Jersey Central from 103¾ to 104¼, Michigan Central from 55 to 55½, Hannibal & St. Joseph from 17 to 18, and Ohios from 16½ to 17. The last named afterwards reacted to 16½. Quicksilver rose to 19 for common and to 23½ for preferred.

At the second call the market was quiet and firmer. At the close stocks were strong and higher. Delaware, Lackawanna & Western made the greatest advance, reaching 119⅞, an advance of 1½ per cent. from the lowest point of the day. The improvement in the remainder of the list from the lowest point was ½ to 1 per cent. Lake Shore advanced to 54⅜, Western Union to 74⅜, Northwest to 35½, St. Paul to 32⅞, Erie to 16⅛, Hannibal & St. Joseph to 18, Michigan Central to 55⅜, and Missouri Pacific to 16⅝. The other changes were unimportant.

The transactions on the Stock Exchange aggregated 114,000 shares, of which 7,600 were Pacific Mail, 16,000 Western Union, 3,600 Northwest common, 2,500 St. Paul common, 14,000 Erie, 44,000 Lake Shore, 10,000 Ohios, 2,000 Wabash, 800 Union Pacific, and 2,500 Missouri Pacific.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

DAILY REPORT OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October 15, 1875.

The leading merchandise markets were moderately active to-day, but devoid of any new or important features to which reference has not already been made in these columns.

APPLES—Continue to arrive freely, but prices are still maintained, $3a4 per bu.

BUTTER—Is still coming in freely, and with the supply accumulating, the market is easier, and dealers generally more anxious to realize. Prime to choice rolls, 27a30c.

BROOM CORN—A Chicago exchange, of Thursday says, in regard to this article: The receipts continue liberal, and the wide difference in the quality of the new corn calls for a considerable range in prices, but the given quotations are seldom shaded, and old corn frequently commands better figures, because it is thoroughly seasoned. Quotations: Choice old hurl brush, 10a11c; choice new brush that will work itself into a hurl broom, 7 1-2a8c; good medium brush, 6 1-4a7c; fair inside and covers, 6a6 1-4c; inferior, 5 1-2c; crooked, 4a6c.

BEANS—Quoted at $2a2,10 for prime new mediums, and $2,15a2,20 for prime new navies.

CHESNUTS—Dully and the supply is accumulating; $5a5,50 per bu.

CHEESE—Is firm and we advance our quotations half a cent per lb; prime Ohio Factory 13 1-2a14 cts per lb.

CRANBERRIES—$10a11 per bbl.

EGGS—The supply is light, but there is not much inquiry; we continue to quote at 24a25c.

FLOUR—Quiet and unchaned; old red winter, $7a7,25; new ditto, $6,50a7; old spring, $7a7,25; new ditto, $6,50a7. Rye Flour, $5,50a5,75.

GROCERIES—There is nothing particularly important to record in regard to the grocery trade; business continues fair, although it is not as brisk as it was last month. Coffee is easy, but not quotably lower. The visible supply is reported as follows:

Total Stock October 13th, in the United States in First Hands, 1875	97,788 Bags.
Afloat and loading for the United States, to 7th ultimo, 1875	81,723 "
Purchases for United States from September 7th to October 9th, 1875	292,000 "
Total visible supply	471,511

Stock at the different ports of the United States to-day in first hands is as follows, viz: Baltimore, 20,262 bags; New York, 61,483 bags; New Orleans, 3,543 bags; Galveston, 9,250 bags; and Savannah, 3,000 bags. Total stock, 97,988 bags, against 35,-255 bags same time last year.

GRAIN—Dealers generally report trade dull, that the demand is mainly to supply immediate necessities, although there is a very fair business in the aggregate. The market for Wheat, unless for strictly prime, is dull, and prices are weak but unchanged; —new red, $1,25a1,35; new white, $1,35a1,40; old red, $1,40a1,45. The receipts and offerings of old stock continue light. There was a sale of 10,000 bushels No. 2 Spring the other day, in Chicago, for May delivery, at $1,20. The Oat market is dull, with more offering than is wanted, but prices remain as last quoted—sales of good Ohio white at 43a44, and mixed at 41a42, free in elevator; prime western white, of which there are none offering, may be quoted at 45a46. Corn continues dull but unchanged; shelled, on track, 68a71: ear, 70a72c for old, and 45a48c for new. Rye continues dull, and cannot be quoted above 80a85c. Sales of Spring Barley at from $1,15a1,30. Considerable Canada Barley has been purchased by some of our brewers at about $1,40 delivered here.

HAY—The market for baled continues dull, although the receipts have slackened up somewhat within the past day or two. We continue to quote prairie at $13a15, and timothy at $17a20—sale one car reported at $19½.

ONIONS—In fair demand but unchanged; $2,50a2,75 per bbl.

POTATOES—The market was more active and prices were higher; Peerless and Early Rose quoted on track by the car load at 37a40 cts per bushel. Prime Peach 48a50. Sweets dull but unchanged; $2a3 per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Our dispatches, both from Chicago and Cincinnati, reported those markets dull and easier, but prices in our market remain as last quoted. Hogs continue to hold up well, but a tumble is only a question of a little time.

SEEDS—No movement in either Clover or Flax. Timothy selling slowly at $2,75a2,90 per bushel.

TALLOW—City, 10; country, 8 1-2a9c.

The New York Coffee Market—General Outlook.

The unusually slow demand and consequent quietude of the market for Brazil Coffe at this period of the season, when a good trade is ordinarily looked for, and the continued unfavorable cables from Rio, are disappointing to the trade, and the market is depressed and quite nominal. The slow and very moderate demand from the West is also a marked feature at the present time, largely assisting to give prices a downward tendency. The West has all along bought sparingly at the late advance, and are now doing even less than before. We have reduced our cargo quotations one-quarter of a cent, but they are still above the views of buyers, and as the only transactions since our last show a decline of half a cent, it would, perhaps, warrant a reduction to that extent, the market closing quietly, with little disposition on the part of our dealers to buy in the present stagnant state of general trade, except for the supply of immediate wants. It may be remarked, on the other hand, that the statistical position of the article, other than the latest cables from Rio would indicate, is unchanged, and that the leading and perhaps most of the holders have not materially varied their views, and continue to offer their goods rather sparingly and without important concessions to buyers. The jobbing trade, as noticed above, is quite small and of late rather decreasing than otherwise, and only stimulated by a pretty general decline in prices.

THE IRON TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October 15, 1875.

Pittsburgh.

PIG IRON.—There has been no improvement in trade since the date of our last report, and while it is generally hoped that there soon will be, the outlook at the present writing is not very encouraging. The demand continues light, restricted entirely to supplying immediate necessities, and while the general tone of the market is weak, prices have undergone no quotable change; holders generally of good standard mill irons are refusing to make concessions, although we occasionally hear of an odd lot sold below quoted rates, but the iron is either not first-class, or the owner is pressed for money. Following sales were reported:

CHARCOAL.

20 tons Eastern .... $34 00 4 mos

BLOOMS.

10 tons Charcoal .... $65 00 4 mos
15 tons Charcoal .... 68 00 4 mos
30 tons Charcoal .... 68 00 4 mos
30 tons Charcoal .... 65 00 cash

CONNELLSVILLE COKE.

10 tons No. 2 Foundry ...... $25 00 4 mos
10 tons No. 2 Foundry ...... 24 00 cash

H. R. CHARCOAL.

120 tons No. 1 Foundry .. $28a31 00 4 mos
110 tons No. 2 " .... private
5 tons C. B. .... private

BITUMINOUS COAL SMELTED FROM L. S. ORE.

20 tons No. 1 Foundry ...... $27 50 4 mos
20 tons No. 1 Foundry ...... 27 00 4 mos
20 tons Foundry .... 25 00 cash
10 tons No. 2 Foundry ...... 24 00 cash
70 tons Close Gray Forge ... 23 00 4 mos
50 tons Gray Forge No. 1 ... 24 00 4 mos

MANUFACTURED IRON.—Trade is still reported very dull and unsatisfactory, and very few of the mills are working up to their full capacity. There is a very fair demand for Sheet Iron, but all other grades are dull, and prices cut so fine that there is little or no margin for profit. Merchant Bars are still quoted at 2 30a2.40, sixty days, but we hear of orders being accepted below quoted rates.

NAILS.—The Nail trade continues slow, and but few, if any, of the factories have sufficient orders to absorb their entire production, and the result is, they are not working up to their full capacity; some of them are running three or four days in the week, as there is a general determination manifested by makers not to accumulate stock. Prices are still quoted at $2,90, sixty days for one hundred keg lots and upward, with the usual discount of two per cent. for cash.

SCRAP IRON—This branch of trade is just about as dull as it can be; some dealers report that they have done little or nothing for several weeks past. No. 1 Railroad Scrap is quoted nominally at $1,20@1,25, 4 mos., delivered free at mills.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 14.—IRON.—American Pig.—The market continues in the same condition as last week. Small sales to meet the current requirements of consumers are all that we hear of. Indeed, the general expectation for lower prices would prevent anything like speculation. The strong companies are doing what they can to maintain prices, but the weak producers and the lots in second hands exert a powerful influence on the other side. We quote without change: No. 1 foundry $25a25,50; No. 2 foundry $23; Gray forge $20a22. Scotch Pig.—The cost of importation and the smallness of stocks here gives strength to the market for Scotch pig, which is firm. We note the sale of 100 tons Eglinton at $28,50, 50 tons Summerlee at $32, 200 tons Glengarnock, to import, said to be at $31. Coltness is held at $33; Gartsherrie, $32,50a33; Summerlee, $32; Eglinton, $29a30. Rails.—We hear of considerable inquiry, but do not learn of any sales of moment. We quote $45a50, at works. Old Rails.—We note the sale of a mixed lot of 150 tons wrought scrap and 300 tons Barlow rails, at a price stated to be between $26a27. In the absence of other transactions we quote nominally at $25a26. Scrap—Wrought scrap continues without change. Sales have been unimportant, and we continue our quotation of $30a32,50.

METALS.—Copper—The week's sales of Lake Superior Copper have amounted to some 400,000 to 500,000 pounds on the spot at 23¾a23⅞c; within this range market closes firm, but quiet. Nothing has been done in futures. Baltimore may be quoted 23a23¼c, according to quantity; sales thereof are light. London improved 10 per cent. last week on Chili Bars, closing on Saturday at £83, while Best Selected stood £90; the market was stiff. Tin.—We have had a dull, but firm market during the week, with but few sales in a jobbing way. The following are the quotations in gold, large lots: Straits 20c, and Banca 24c; of the two English kinds there is none on hand. Tin Plates are quiet in Europe, but figures there show no further yielding. Here, we have remained inactive, the dealings being merely jobbing transactions to supply immediate wants. We quote, gold, per box, large lines, ordinary brands as follows: Charcoal bright, $7,37½a7,50; do ternes $7a7,25; coke tin $6,50a6,75, and do ternes $6,25. Lead—There have been sold during the week 125 tons common domestic at 5.65a5.75c, gold, while a lot of tons, "Richmond" brand, Nevada lead, just arrived, may still be sold to-day, not unlikely at 5½c, gold, this species of lead being inferior. The manufactures of lead are steady on the basis of 8¾c for bar and pipe and 9¾c for sheet, less 10 per cent. Spelter and Zinc—Activity in the brass manufacturing regions still being quite moderate, spelter has not yet shown any particular indications of a revival; yet it moves off steadily in moderate quantities at 7¼c, currency, 30 days.—Iron Age.

BRITISH MARKET.

WEDNESDAY, October 13.—Scotch Pig.—A large business has been done under an improved demand, but prices are not so strong. The following are makers' quotations: Gartsherrie No. 1, 73-6; Coltness No. 1, 78; Glengarnock No. 1, 69; Eglinton No. 1, 64-6. Manufactured Iron.—A slight improvement is noticeable and prices are firm. Rails are without change.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October 15, 1875.

The market for Crude was firm to-day, and prices have been still further advanced; immediate shipment was quoted at $1,60; United certificates, $1,32 1-2a1,33 3-4; Union, $1,30. There is nothing specially new to record in development or production. The new territory in McKean county, is reported as producing about 250 bbls per day. Refined continues quiet; there were some sales reported at 13 1-2 on cars here, and our latest from Philadelphia at 13 1-4c there. The bulk of the shipments for some days past has been to Baltimore.

The Barrel market continues dull, and prices are irregular; sellers generally are asking $1,55 for city make, but are no buyers for the present above $1,50.

L. A. WELSH, Sergeant Signal Service, U. S. A.

THE stage of water last evening was 4 feet 3 inches, and falling. There was considerable rain during the day, and the prospects last evening were favorable for more.

No arrivals or departures, excepting the slackwater packets.

THE Fanchon, Capt. T. C. Sweeney's new boat, left Cincinnati for this port on Thursday.

THE Salt Valley is due from Ironton to-morrow, and will leave on her trip on Monday at 3 P. M.

THE Rover and barges will positively depart for St. Louis to-day, and shippers should bear this in mind.

BOTH the Allegheny and Monongahela continue to recede at headwaters. It was raining at Oil City yesterday afternoon.

THE funeral of the late W. H. Brown took place from the family residence, and, as might be expected, it was largely attended.

CAPTAIN AB. SHAW has bought an interest in the Fannie Tatum, and will command her this season in the New Orleans and Arkansas trade.

THE Coal Valley and Fair Play, according to latest reports, had experienced no trouble, notwithstanding their barges were drawing all the water.

CAPT. JAMES S. WISE, Superintendent of the Memphis & Ohio River Packet Company, was elected Treasurer of Hamilton County, Ohio, on the Republican ticket Tuesday.

YESTERDAY'S Wheeling Intelligencer says the James Rees arrived from Sunfish and returned. This is her first trip since the commencement of the low water season. She looks like a new craft in her fresh paint.

PILOT J. A. HARTON, who was for a time Secretary of the Pilots' Association, has gone into the milling business; he is now turning out a first-class article of corn meal and chopped feed at his mill, on third avenue, near Liberty.

A ST. LOUIS dispatch, under date of the 13th, says: The Mary Bell begins loading for New Orleans to-morrow. The John F. Tolle left this evening with 1,200 tons, and the Bee had 2 barges and 1,000 tons. Com. Kountz is still here. The name of Captain Carroll's new boat for the Gen. Anderson's machinery will be Polar Star.

CAPTAIN JOHN F. MCLAIN, United States Inspector of Hulls for the port of Evansville, has been ordered to proceed to Louisville and try the Shinkle-Hillman collision case. Captain James G. Mather, Inspector of Hulls for the port of Louisville, having been a passenger on the Hillman and witnessed the accident, will be examined as a witness.

FRIDAY'S Cincinnati Commercial says: The Fanchon departed for Pittsburgh with a fair trip. She will load on her return trip for Arkansas river. The Andes and John L. Rhoads depart for Pittsburgh to-night. The Kittie Hegler, for Memphis, and Cherokee, for New Orleans, depart to-morrow. ....A. T. Shahan purchased Captain John Gerke's little pleasure boat, the Star of the West. Price, $3,000, cash. Captain Theodore Davis will have command.

A LATE Davenport paper says: "And now the N. W. Union Packet Co. has sued the city of Burlington for $1,487 wharfage fees they claim to have paid illegally in 1870-71-72. Commodore Davidson wants but $935 from this city—and he won't get it. His attorney, J. Ham. Davidson, was here a few days since, and admitted that City Attorney Martin had got him on tonnage (the city didn't ask wharfage fees for tonnage,) but believed he had got the city on the Constitutional provision which gives Congress the right to regulate commerce, and provides that no State shall interfere with it."

HOME NEWS.

Jewelry Store Robbed.

The jewelry store of Wm. Faecke, at the corner of Oak alley and Liberty street, was entered between six and seven o'clock last evening by three men, two of whom engaged the proprietor in conversation in the rear of the store, while a third one stole from a show case in front a card of gold rings, a couple of silver watch cases and a watch valued at $65. Mike Bradford was soon after arrested by officer Neil McFadden as one of the party engaged in the theft. He was locked up in the Central Police Station.

A False Alarm.

An experiment was being made last night, in the yard attached to the Exposition building, with a Connolly Fire Extinguisher, but the parties engaged in it had neglected to inform the firemen of what they were about to do and it resulted in an alarm of fire. "Bob" McGonnigle, Secretary of the Poor Board, observing the flame and smoke and naturally thinking the building was on fire, ran to the nearest box and pulled an alarm. It brought the department promptly out, but there was no necessity for the presence or service of the engines.

Those Decorations.

On the authority of a person who, our reporter presumed, knew whereof he spoke, we stated that the decorating of the auditorium of the U. P. Church, at the semi-centennial of the Allegheny Theological Seminary, was done by Messrs. Bochman and Patterson. We last evening received a note from Mr. Harvey, of the firm of B. A. Elliot & Co., stating that he had done the decorating himself, with flowers from that firm's greenhouse. We cheerfully make the correction, with the explanation that the error was not intentional on our part, and we regret that it occurred.

Death of Wm. H. Brown.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pittsburgh Bank of Commerce, Oct. 15, 1875, the following action was taken in reference to the death of Wm. H. Brown:

Resolved, That it is with deep regret that we have learned the sad intelligence of the death of Wm. H. Brown, one of the oldest members of our Board.

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Brown our Bank has lost a warm and ardent friend and supporter, and the City of Pittsburgh one the of most prominent, energetic and useful of her citizens.

Resolved, As evidence of our high respect and esteem and to manifest our sympathy with the family of the deceased in their great bereavement, we will attend his funeral at one o'clock this after noon.

Resolved, The above resolutions be entered on our minutes, and a copy transmitted to the family of the deceased.

ALFRED PATTERSON, President.
JOSEPH H. HILL, Secretary.

Laid to Rest.

Yesterday morning the funeral services over the remains of the late Rev. J. S. Stuchell were held in the Hazlewood Presbyterian church, Twenty third ward, of which he was pastor. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity.

The body, which had been placed in a beautiful casket, was carried to the church from the family residence, at Marion Station, at half past eight o'clock yesterday morning, preceded by Rev. N. Hays, of Washington College, Rev. Mr. Jennings, of Mt. Washington, J. Chichester, of Altoona, Dr. George P. Hays, Rev. Mr. Lyle, of Homestead, Rev. A. M. Milligan, Chaplain of the Western Penitentiary, and Rev. Mr. Norton, of Hazlewood. As the body was carried into the church, the choir rendered the anthem "Cast thy Burden on the Lord," and after the remains had been deposited in front of the pulpit, Rev. Mr. Lyle offered up a most impressive prayer. The choir then sang "Come ye Disconsolate," after which Rev. Mr. Chichester read a portion of the scriptures, and followed with an eloquent and touching tribute to the memory of the deceased.

After the choir had sung "How blest the righteous when he dies," Rev. Dr. Hays delivered a brief eulogy, referring particularly to the ministrations of the deceased during his pastorate in Baltimore. The closing prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Jennings, and the congregation was dismissed with the benediction. The casket was opened and those present passed along in front and took a final farewell. The body was carried from the church to the foot of Hazlewood avenue, and placed on the boat for Elizabeth, where they are to be interred. A large concourse accompanied the remains to their last resting place.

POLITICAL NOTES.

SENATOR SHERMAN will be in the city next Staturday week, and will address a Republican mass meeting, to be held in the evening.

GEORGE W. WILLIAMS, ESQ., editor of the Commoner, the organ of the colored people, at Wasaington, D. C., is in the city, en route home from the West. He will speak at the mass meeting to be held this evening.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

A Man Struck by the Cars Near Jamestown.

About 11 o'clock last night, train No. 4 (passenger) on the Jamestown & Franklin branch of the Atantic & Great Western Railroad, ran over and instantly killed a man named John Strong. The accident occurred about three-quarters of a mile west of Jamestown. Strong had been seen leaving Jamestown near 8 P. M. very much under the influence of liquor. He lived about a mile from Jamestown, and was about forty years of age. He leaves a wife and family.

The Single Scull Race this Afternoon Between Morris and Coulter.

Between two and four o'clock this afternoon is the time fixed for the second race between Eph. Morris and Henry Coulter for $500 a side and the championship of America. The course is on the Allegheny river, at Hulton station, but if the weather should be no better than it was yesterday afternoon, it is probable that the contest will be postponed. On this point, however, we know nothing definite and merely say what we think. There does not begin to be that degree of interest manifested in it that there was in the first race, and it is likely that the number of spectators will not be very large nor the betting extensive.

THIEVING.

A Valuable Watch Stolen from Rev. Alex. Clark—South Side Sneak Thieving.

The residence of Rev. Alex. Clark, in the East End, was entered by robbers on Thursday night, and a gold watch, thirty dollars in money, and some valuable papers stolen. The thieves gained an entrance by forcing open a window. The watch stolen was presented to Mr. Clark by the members of the First Methodist congregation, in 1867, and is inscribed: "To our pastor, a present from his many friends, May 8th, 1867." It was accordingly highly prized.

During Thursday afternoon a sneak thief entered the residence of Mr. J. S. Westcott, at No. 1906 Sidney street, South Side, and carried off a pair of gold chain bracelets.

AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

"Saratoga" will be played at the matinee this afternoon and also this evening. It is brim full of wit and humor, and last night Mr. Lewis perpetrated a number of "gags" which added very considerably to the general amusement. His reference to the Hon. John McKee, who was an interested spectator and the observed of all, was particularly enjoyed by the audience.

On Monday evening the Furbish Combination appear in the "Two Orphans."

Fifth Avenue Theater.

The last two performances at this theater will be given to-day. It closes finally to-night.

Library Hall.

Tuesday evening next will be inaugurated a short season of the Mexican Juvenile Opera Bouffe Company, at Library Hall, after most successful performances in the Eastern cities. Offenbach's "Grand Duchess" will be produced the opening night, and also Thursday evening, "Robinson Crusoe" on Wednesday evening, and other pieces on Friday night and Saturday afternoon. The sale of reserved seats commenced yesterday, and the prospect for good houses is excellent.

Trimble's Varieties.

The variety performance is excellent and that it is appreciated is evidenced by the big houses every night. McAndrews, the Reynolds Bros., Minnie Rainforth, the D'Omers, the Female Minstrel Troupe and all the rest are popular.

A DYING CONFESSION.

A Dying Man Admits the Perpetration of a Crime for Which Another Man is Now in Prison.

During yesterday George Baker, who lives in the Twelfth ward, called upon Judge Ewing in Court to see about a man named John Denny, who was sentenced by Judge Ewing at the March term of the Criminal Court to the Penitentiary for five years. He was found with a watch in his possession that was stolen from a house burglarized, and on this evidence he was convicted of the crime and sentenced to imprisonment. It now appears likely that he was innocent, as Baker states that about four weeks ago a man in this city by the name of George Stick received a letter from a friend in Chicago, by the name of Morgan, inquiring if anything was known of John Denny. Morgan is employed in a Chicago hospital, and shortly before writing the letter a patient, known to the hospital authorities by the name of Rexter, died. Before he expired he confessed that he had committed the burglary in Pittsburgh for which Denny is imprisoned. He was boarding at the same house with Denny, and gave him a watch to keep for him, and soon after left the city without reclaiming the watch.

Steps are to be commenced for procuring Denny's pardon, and to this end a number of South Side glass firms have sent in certificates of Denny's previous good character.

Marvin's Superior Cracker Meal.

For frying egg plant, cutlets, fish, oysters, &c., is better than rolled crackers. Full directions with each package. Sold by all grocers.

THE EXPOSITION.

The Fifth Day of the Great Exhibition.

The Features of Yesterday—General Items of Interest—Notes from the Stands—Some of the Finest Displays—The Enterprise of Our Business Men.

The attendance at the Exposition yesterday was good, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

SPACE WANTED.

Applications continue to come in. Especially in Power Hall is room wanted for saws, hand and jig, and a Minneapolis man wants space for wood working machinery. A dozen parties from Chicago want space for various displays.

DRINKING FOUNTAINS.

Now that seats have been procured and placed where they will do the most good, will not some one in authority place drinking stands at convenient places? The crowd is sure to be thirsty in its wanderings, and some attachments could easily be made to water pipes and a cup hung at each place.

The following are among the awards made to exhibitors of horses:

ROADSTERS.

James Neely, Walnesville, Pa.; stallion over five years, first premium.

E. Cunningham, McKeesport; stallion under three years, first premium.

G. W. Evans, Allegheny; stallion, five years, first premium.

The following also obtained first premiums:

Peter Nune, Allegheny, stallion, two years old.

W. F. Lynch, Allegheny, four year old filly.

Charles W. Van Essen, West View, two year old filly.

Alex. A. McMasters, Pittsburgh, work horse, first premium.

R. H. Dempsey, Bennett, saddle horse, first premium.

Wm. McKinney, Sr., Allegheny, cart horse, first premium.

J. C. King, Allegheny, pony, first premium.

Chas. Hartman, jack, first premium.

George W. Evans, Allegheny, roadster, and gent's road horse, two first premiums.

James Bradley, Allegheny, gent's road horse, first premium.

POWER HALL.

As intimated, this department is incomplete, though Mr. Munroe, under whose charge it is, has worked persistently and successfully, and he will have the second engine running to-day. All the space in this department has been taken, and much of it is already occupied by machinery. The east end of the hall is not yet closed up, and the committee may find it necessary to extend it.

A BUILDING FOR WAGONS.

The Executive Committee have decided to put up a building in which to exhibit wagons. Work on it was commenced yesterday morning. It will be twenty-two by one hundred and twenty-five feet long, and will be located back of Power Hall.

A POINTED INTERVIEW ABOUT BEER.

The basement beer has disappeared, said the Telegraph of last evening, but the unpleasant effects of the misunderstanding are still heard about the headquarters of the Executive Committee in the shape of numerous demands for damages, and threats to resort to the law. How the management view this matter will be pretty plainly shown by the following short but quite pointed interview, which took place this forenoon in Press Headquarters, between Mr. Vannote, the Secretary of the committee, and one of the ousted beer venders:

Ex-Beer Vender—I want to see the Executive Committee.

Mr. Vannote—What do you want, sir?

Ex-B. V.—I want to know if you are going to pay me damages?

Mr. V.—We are not.

Ex-B. V.—I have taken legal advice, and we'll see if you wont.

Mr. V.—We have taken legal advice, too. Go ahead.

Ex-B. V.—Good morning.

Mr. V.—Good morning, sir.

A SWEETMEAT WAR.

Some of the city confectioners feel unpleasant because a Cincinnati man was given the exclusive license by the Executive Committee to sell pop-corn candy, &c., and some of them threaten to leave the building. The committee state that they advertised for bids for the right to sell confectionery, and that the Cincinnati man was the "highest responsible bidder," and of course the contract was awarded to him. If this is the case it leaves no room for complaint on the part of the city confectioners.

"CHILDREN'S DAY."

This is "Children's Day" at the Exposition, and the juveniles are to be admitted for ten cents each—a reduction which appeals directly to the inner consciousness of the members of the children's brigade. They will be admitted from 9 A. M. until 6 P. M. There will be some special music for their benefit, and they will receive a hearty welcome. It promises to be a great day.

BRIEFS.

The Executive Committee have passed a resolution, granting complimentary season tickets to clergymen, who can receive them by applying at the office.

Rev. Dr. Taylor, President of the Beaver Female College, will visit the Exposition to-morrow with the young ladies of that institution.

"WELCOME TO THE PUBLIC."

Among the very noticeable attractions is that made by the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company, of No. 140 Wood street. They have located in the Sewing Machine Department, not very far from the east stairway, and have fitted up the large space occupied in a very neat and tasteful manner. Their space is very handsomely carpeted, and a large chandelier, hung directly in front, gives them plenty of illumination at night. Stretched across their stand, at the top, is the inscription plainly printed in large and attractive letters on white canvass, "The Wheeler & Wilson welcomes the public, returns thanks for past, and solicits future patronage." The welcome can be plainly seen, so that even "he who runs may read," and it invariably attracts attention.

The company exhibit half a dozen working machines taken directly from the stock at the warehouse and not gotten up especially for display. The work is what is depended upon to convince the people. Two of the machines are run by steam power, and the others by the foot treadle. The work done on these machines in the presence of the visitor comprises all kinds, from the finest Swiss material up through all the grades to boots, shoes, harness and carriage trimming sewing, and every piece of work shows for itself.

The character of the work is attested by one convincing fact. Messrs. W. E. Schmertz & Co., manufacturers of boots and shoes; the Gilliam Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of fine saddles, and the Eagle Cotton Mills Company, in their bagging, have all made their samples for the Exposition on Wheeler & Wilson machines. These samples are on exhibition at the stands of the companies named. If the proof of the pudding is in the eating—the Wheeler & Wilson has a high claim on public favor.

Another fact in connection with these machines is that at the Cincinnati Exposition, which has just closed, the "Wheeler & Wilson" swept the field of medals taking every medal that was offered as a premium. Facts like these speak louder than words. The display made by the company was arranged under the supervision of the manager, Mr. Sidney Omohundro, and reflects credit upon his taste and ingenuity. It is an attractive place for the ladies, and none of them pass it by without stopping to look at what the Wheeler & Wilson can do.

AN ECONOMICAL TOOL.

Among the practical appliances for work on exhibition, carpenters will be especially interested in the Evans Patent Bench Vise, manufactured by Mr. William Peoples, the well-known stair builder of Allegheny. Mr. Peoples exhibits this vise, and shows its practical superiority at his stand in the north gallery, near the sewing machine department. The advantages claimed for this invention are that it is the only patent bench vise with a perpendicular movement, having the advantage of forming either a "high or low vise," also with the patent equalizer. The vise is made self-adjusting in the opening and shutting movement, suiting any thickness of stuff, and doing away with the old troublesome pin, making it a convenient and pleasant tool to work with, and any workman using it one week would not be without it. It is just the tool for carpenters and joiners, wagon, carriage, cabinet and pattern makers, stair builders, engravers and carvers, and all workers in wood. No worker in wood should miss examining this vise.

THE ADJUSTABLE FOLDING CHAIR

which is exhibited on the north gallery, near the art gallery, is an exceedingly attractive feature of the exhibition for weary folks. It is very suggestive of real luxury and comfort. The agent has brought from the general office, No. 3 Sixth street, several fine specimens of these admirable chairs, and shows how many uses they can be put to in the way of affording rest for tired or invalid people. The adjustable folding chair combines five different articles of furniture in one, viz., an easy chair, a child's crib and carriage, a lounge, a full length bed, and an invalid's or lounging chair. It can be changed from any one of these to any other in a moment's time, and without the least trouble. It is very compactly made, cannot get out of order with ordinary handling, is very cleanly, being a decided improvement on a lounge in that respect, and is in short the multum in parvo in the furniture line. It has recently been improved, and ought to be carefully examined by every housekeeper who wants to secure the most furniture for the least money.

BARNE'S SAFES.

The old reliable safe manufactory of Thomas Barnes is represented in several samples from the warehouse, Nos. 129 and 131 Third avenue. They occupy a space near the fountain, about in the center of the building in the lower floor. The "Barnes" safe has a national reputation, which has been gained by years of successful resistance to the burglar and fire fiend. They are manufactured of the best material and by the best of workmen, and every safe bears with it the guarantee of the proprietor on the manufacturers. The safes on exhibition are fair samples of the general stock, and show the different sizes and styles, both of finish and arrangement. There are also specimens from the same manufactory in patent door and bank locks, which are warranted to stand the most severe fiery ordeal or the most expert thief. These safes, vaults, doors and locks have been tried during many years, and have never been found wanting. Hence they are preferred by builders and merchants.

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

It is not too much to say that Elaine the famous non-explosive oil is destined to become one of the great lights of the world. It is the only oil on exhibition in the Exposition building and its presence there is due to the fact that it is the only product of petroleum that the Executive Committee would allow in the place. The Committee came to this conclusion after a careful canvass of the matter for two reasons. First it was the only oil that was satisfactory to the insurance men, who had risks on the building; and second, it had proved its superiority in one signal instance known to the committee. That was the time when two heavy chandeliers, of twenty-four lights each, in which the Elaine was burned, fell from their places, and were literally shivered to atoms. The Elaine was spilled over the floor but did not explode. That was a practical test. The Elaine makes a very brilliant yet very steady light, easy on the eyes, and preferable to gas for reading or long continued work. Right under the east stairway is the Elaine headquarters.

REYMER & BROS

make a very sweet display of fine French and plain confectionery, foreign fruits, nuts, canned goods and specialties in that line. They are located on the main floor, opposite the pagoda, and they have fitted up their stand in exquisite style. The display of fine confectionery is very taking. Their assortment of canned goods embraces everything in that line known in the trade. The candies they exhibit comprise all kinds from the very finest to the plainer varieties. They also intersperse their sweet meat display with samples of pickles, sauces and fancy groceries. Their sweet goods are enclosed in brightly polished show cases, and arranged so that the colors of the various candies give a most pleasing effect. Messrs. Reymer & Bros., make nothing but the pure article, and these goods came direct from their store, Nos. 126, 128 and 130 Wood street. They are doing a good trade with the visitors to the Exposition. The stand is very attractive to the little folks.

D. & F. S. WELTY,

the well-known carpet dealers, of Nos. 115 and 117 Federal street, Allegheny, have really out-done all their previous efforts in a display of fine and beautiful goods in their line,—and yet the goods they exhibit are but fair samples of the general stock at their warehouse. They have carpets varying in all prices from seventy-five cents upwards, comprising the plainest to the very finest. Their assortment of rugs and parlor mats embraces some new and very rich designs not to be had in any other house hereabouts. This firm is one that can be relied on in every representation they make, and they always keep on hand a stock from which every taste and purse can be accommodated.

FLEMING, AGNEW & CO.

We have called attention to the fine display made by Messrs. Fleming, Agnew & Co., but it is one which will bear recalling again. This house has secured a place in the southwest end of the building and has fitted it up with tinware and Japanned ware until it is one of the brightest corners in all the building. The display of tinware, for tinners' use, shows everything needed in the trade, while the tinware, for domestic purposes, embraces every article, large or small, which the fancy of the good housewife could wish for. In Japanned ware the stock is nothing short of the gorgeous. The designs both in flowers, figures and landscapes are new and rich, the colors are well blended, and seem to be put on as though they were intended to stay. In coal vases, chamber sets, dust pans, hods, &c., their assortment is complete. All the goods are made up solid and in graceful proportions, so that they are both useful and ornamental. The stock comes from the general assortment kept on hand constantly at the warehouse on Third avenue, and shows what kind of work is always put out by the firm.

SLATE ROOFING.

Yesterday Mr. W. B. Lupton, the slate roofer, was engaged in slating the roof of the high tower of the Exposition building. Lupton knows how to do such work, and the giving of the contract to him is a sure guarantee that it will be done right.

THOMAS MCFADDEN, JR.

The visitor who goes out of the art gallery by the door towards the south or river side, comes directly in front of the magnificent display made by Mr. Thomas McFadden, Jr., the Fifth avenue jeweler. Mr. McFadden has a fine assortment in his show cases, and the visitor is fairly dazzled at its brilliancy. Especially is this the case at night, when the lights reflect back from the silverware and gold. The goods embrace watches and clocks, of all descriptions, some of them being of very unique patterns and magnificent finish. Then there is a fine display of silverware, comprising everything known in that line for household ornamentation or table use. There are also statuettes, and a large variety of articles of vertu, of rich and rare quality and design. This house is the oldest establishment of the kind in the city, having been established in 1828. It has always enjoyed the highest reputation for reliability, and for the perfect character of the goods sold. The present location of Mr. McFadden's store is in the First National Bank building, on Fifth avenue. His display at the Exposition shows that the enterprise and excellence which always characterized the house are still maintained.

ROOFING—A FINE SAMPLE.

Messrs. Mills & Co., of No. 258 Liberty street, the roofers, have a space on the north gallery, near the music stand, where they exhibit a miniature house roofed by their new patent process. This roof is composed of one part hydraulic cement, and two parts sharp, coarse sand, laid in a plastic state on water-proof paper which prevents the sheeting from drawing on account of the moisture in the mortar. The metalic fluting, composed of copper, tin or zinc, is placed at proper intervals on the paper, which allows for contraction and expansion. The fastenings are small nails, driven through the paper and into the sheeting, leaving their heads exposed about half an inch. The cement goes round and over the head covering the nails, making a complete fastening. The mortar goes down solid, filling every depression in the sheeting, making a permanent and durable roof, weighing seven pounds to the square foot, that you can walk over without breaking like slate, will not need painting like tin, will not rust like iron, will not rot like wood, that it is entirely fire, water and wind proof, and just what is desired by architects and builders. The little house attracts a great deal of attention from builders.

HARRIS & EWING.

Messrs. Harris & Ewing have located on the north balcony, near the music stand, and have on exhibition one of the most beautiful displays of drugs and chemicals we have ever seen. They have stands on both sides of the main aisle, and upon these their goods have been arranged with exquisite taste. The specialties in which they deal are all represented in the stock, in boxes, glass jars, and pharmaceutists cabinets. The assortment is arranged with regard to the colors of the different medicines, and it gives to the whole display a most brilliant effect. The array consists of essential oils in vials, fluid extracts, sugar-coated pills,—a very large variety—and other drugs and chemicals innumerable in number. A collection of crystals of alum, white, and of crystals of sulphate of copper, dark, blue attract the eye. In the assortment they have also a curiosity in the shape of a small vial of an herb known as the "Herb Domoniana" which retails at $400 per pound. It is the only sample of the kind in the United States. Their assortment of pills also represents a greater variety of stood than can be had anywhere, even in the city. The arrangement of the stand and the fine appearance it makes, are due to the fine taste of Mr. James Little, who has it in charge, and who has exercised no little ingenuity, united to a fine appreciation of the harmony of things, in fitting up the stand.

EDWARD BOURNE.

Edward Bourne, plumber, gas and steam pipe fitter, No. 45 Market street, Pittsburgh. This gentleman has on exhibition a cooking and laundry stove, which will fill an important want long felt by those who have been compelled to live in houses where stationary ranges are not placed. It has the same water back for supplying any quantity of hot water that can be had by the best of kitchen ranges, and does away with the clumsy boiler, having sufficient water capacity within itself to answer the wants of the largest family. It combines the very best ideas of a kitchen range complete, with an admirable laundry stove. This is done by simply changing the top and inserting, instead of the ordinary lids, the patent laundry arrangement which heats any number of smoothing irons at once.

Mr. Bourne also has on exhibition beautiful samples of plumbing work, among which is a piece of his own design, with a patent faucet, which emits either cold or hot water by simply turning it to the right or left as you want the water hot or cold. His basins are also a beautiful design and finish. One in particular, having attached to it a gas burner overhead, with large mirror conveniences, much admired. He also exhibits a fine line of plumbing, including elegant marble risers for shower baths, of most exquisite pattern and of the most beautiful finish, with silvered faucets, and everything in harmony. Also bath tubs, and highly finished silver-plated and brass plumbing work. In addition to these he exhibits four different styles of vertical pipe radiators for steam heating, suitable for any room or hall either large or small. His display attracts great attention and is admired by all.

A. M'DONALD,

whose office is at No. 45 Market street, this city, exhibits one of the celebrated Job Bartlett & Son's Air-tight Gas consuming furnaces, for heating private dwellings, public halls, etc. They are manufactured in Philadelphia, where they have a reputation which is eclipsed by none, if equalled by any furnace in that market. Mr. McDonald is the agent in this city for this furnace. It is made wholly of heavy sheet iron, nothing else entering into its composition excepting the grate, bars and furnace front, which of course are of cast iron.

Its chief attraction is its great simplicity, burning hard or soft coal, coke or wood. It is perfectly air-tight even to its ash-door, giving one complete control of it under all circumstances, and rendering it perfectly safe at all times, and free from any unpleasant gaseous odors. It has no complicated system of dampers and hot-air chambers, but a child can comprehend it and effectually attend to it.

The cold air is admitted through a hollow wall, connected with which are the tubes, the smoke passing through ten feet of pipes before leaving the chamber which concentrates and holds the heat. The vapor pan holding water, is attached at a point easily accessible. The fire-place consists of four large tile and requires no repairs, having no system of complicated brick work to be overhauled each season.

We advise all who want a hot-air furnace to examine this one, and we call upon the committee who have charge of premiums to closely investigate and weigh its merits.

BAILEY, FARRELL & CO.

Very few of our readers are aware of the extent and magnitude of many of the chief branches of manufacture carried on in our city. The great leading branches of iron, glass and steel, from their very magnitude, monopolize the interest of our own people, and also that taken by the thousands of visitors who annually visit our city. We are chiefly noted abroad for our vast enterprise in building up the iron and glass interest, and but little is known of the thousands of other branches of manufacture, of vast magnitude, covering every conceivable branch in mechanics, and consuming silver, brass, lead, copper and all the principle metals. One of the most important of these branches is that carried on by the firm of Messrs. Bailey, Farrell & Co., whose establishment is at No. 167 Smithfield street, in this city, running through to Strawberry alley. They manufacture large quantities of lead pipe of all sizes used, casting the pipes from the raw pigs, and fully completed for use.

Their manufactures in this line are of immense extent, and employ a large number of hands. Their display of goods of their own manufacture, and of those for which they are agents in this city, at the Exposition now in progress, is unusually admired by all who visit that wonderful bazaar of beauty. Chief among the attractions afforded by this enterprising firm, and one which excites the curiosity and rivets the attention of all, is or the Hydro-pneumatic puzzle—a species of power produced by compressed air, which can be applied as a motor or power that will lift, drive or pull immense bodies; in fact a "Keely Motor" which outstrips Keely himself. It attains in a few moments a pressure of 5,000 pounds, and causes, when at this point, all observers to stand back at a respectful distance, doubtful whether their heads are entirely safe, until they are restored to equanimity by the assurance that there is positively no danger of an explosion.

"THE WHAT IS IT,"

THE FRIEDMAN INJECTOR

is another of the noted articles exhibited by Messrs. Bailey, Farrell & Co. It is universally recommended by mechanics as the best injector for supplying boilers now known. They are the sole agents for this injector. It would be hardly possible for us, in the brief time and space allowed us, to enter into a full description of all the numberless articles displayed by this firm in the Exposition, but we will attempt simply to enumerate them.

THE KNOWLES STEAM PUMPS,

for which they are agents, fills an important niche in Power Hall. Its capacity is equal to that of any of our fire engines, and could be applied at one-fourth the money that they cost. They also display a fine line of the justly celebrated for wells and water lifts, an admirable article. They also are the sole agents for this pump; also air pumps, and pumps of all description, both steam and those worked by hand. Any one wanting any description of pumps would do well to call upon Messrs. Bailey, Farrell & Co., at their works.

STEAM GAUGES

n endless variety and of most beautiful designs are in their list of articles on exhibition. They also display fine lines of galvanized boilers, a sample of which is among them now ordered for export to Germany, having been purchased by a firm in that distant country. Block tin is very largely dealt in by this firm—samples of the same are in their displayed articles. Also they exhibit an endless variety of brass castings, including steam whistles, globe valves, machine castings for a twenty-four inch cylinder and others of smaller size. So excellent are these castings that the grain of the wood of the paterns can be seen. Also among their articles we find some very fine samples of bronze work including figure heads, cups, saucers, knives and forks, cast screws as complete as though cut by machinery. These are of several colors, from that of fine gold on to the darkest hues. Also automatic cylinder cocks, oil cups, bushis, basin cocks, both brass and silver plated, and a full line of plumbers' and gas fitters' goods. It is admitted by all that the display of the firm of Bailey, Farrell & Co. is one of the most complete and elegant in the Exposition, and their goods are universally admired.

KINDER BLAIR.

We have spoken of the display made by that prince of caterers and confectioners Mr. Kinder Blair of No. 25 Fifth avenue. Mr. Blair's stock at the Exposition is not a full representation of what he has in store because it would be pretty hard to give such a representation. His magnificent confectionery and dining rooms at 39 Fifth avenue and the Allegheny department at 68 Federal street, attest his enterprise and the extended patronage which he enjoys from a public that can appreciate superiority in the difficult art to which he has given his attention. Blair's dining rooms, No. 39 Fifth avenue, are a feature of Pittsburgh and visitors to the Exposition, will not have fully taken in the city until they pay a visit to this place. They need not be afraid of heavy prices, for the tariff is down to the lowest notch, but they may anticipate a feast such as they perhaps have seldom dreamed of. Mr. Blair, in his line, stands at the head. Remember his place—No. 39 Fifth avenue.

ABDIEL M'CLURE & CO.,

of No. 362 Penn avenue, have on exhibition something in the line of practical workmanship. Their display consists of brooms, flour sacks, paper, wooden ware, &c., which are the specialties manufactured by them. The brooms, in appearance are just such as the good housewife will long to take hold of and flourish, and the wooden ware, will likewise suggest perhaps possible deficiencies in the home supply in that direction, and lead to a replenishing of the stock. Then there is what every housekeeper wants, Troxell's "Pride of the Kitchen" Soap, you will not be without it after giving it one trial. Ask your grocer for it or call and get a sample from agent. The flour sacks are of a superior quality, and the representatives of the trade from a distance, would do well to inspect them. At home we know what they are, and they need no further endorsement than the demand that is made for them. This is a unique, but interestsng display of a practical character.

THE SODA WATER FOUNTAIN.

When we say the soda water fountain we mean the fountain, which, of all others, attracts most attention—that magnificent apparatus put up near the center of the building by the Fifth avenue druggists, Messrs. McClarran & McKennan, at a cost of about $7,000. It is a splendid specimen of artistic skill, and arrests the attention of every visitor to the Exposition. The best of soda water, too, comes from that fountain, and those who drop in at the Exposition to-day should refresh themselves by a little draught from the foaming stream.

Messrs. McClarran & McKennan have a very eligible location, and they have exhibited their well known enterprise by properly fitting it up. They display a fine assortment of perfumes and fancy drugs, toilet articles, &c., in addition to the fountain, and their space is made brilliant by the beautiful arrangement of goods.

SINGER SEWING MACHINE.

In the sewing machine department the Singer Manufacturing Company make a display of their machines. They have the different styles all at work, and the people can judge for themselves what the Singer is by seeing it in actual operation and inspecting its work. The Singer is a noiseless, easy moving machine, and so easily operated that a child may be taught to sew upon it without difficulty. One important fact in favor of the Singer is that there were more of them sold last year than all the other machines in the market—the sales being very largely in advance. This shows the popular feeling in the matter, and as the people who buy and use the machine ought to know something of its merits, their endorsement is invincible. The samples at the Exposition are but duplicates of those at the general office, No. 10 Sixth street. They are ornamental as well as useful.

THE GREAT FUR HOUSE of Messrs. Fleming & Oglevee, No. 139 Wood street, have not been behind hand, but have on exhibition a splendid lot of furs and hats and caps. They are located in the north balcony, just west of the music stand. The furs embrace all the varieties to be found at their fur house, and a very beautiful assortment it is. Their hats and caps, displayed in a large and handsome show-case, will please gentlemen visitors who want to know the very latest styles and where to get them. This firm, which has long been recognized as the leading fur-house in this section still keeps up its reputation, juding from the exhibition of the goods at this stand. For variety and beauty, and richness and taste this assortment is unexcelled. It shows one important fact, that there is a Pittsburgh house which in enterprise is fully up to the mark, and does not allow itself to be beaten by any eastern house, either in goods or low prices.

LADIES, LOOK HERE.

Yesterday a new attraction was added to the stand of Messrs. White, Orr & Co., the Fifth avenue dry goods dealers. It was a quilt made of satin and silk of different shades, and quilted in "patches" or blocks of different designs—some square, some diamonds, and others oblong. The quilt is composed of seven thousand five hundred and twenty-two pieces, and is put together with a rare delicacy of taste, as well as exquisite sewing. It was made by Mrs. G. L. Drane, of No. 23 Arch street, Allegheny, and is to be sold and the money applied to religious purposes. It is really one of the greatest curiosities of the Exposition.

While the ladies are looking at this magnificent specimen of needle work, they should also take a look at the Irish linens displayed by the same firm. These goods are all imported direct for this house, and comprise the finest assortment of table and toilet linens to be seen in this city.

W. W. WALLACE.

The display made by W. W. Wallace in the east end gallery, just at the rear of the grand stairway, attracted great attention yesterday. Mr. Wallace has now got things into ship-shape, and the visitors can have some idea of his stock. He exhibits a superb collection of marble mantels of various colors and of different styles of ornamentation. The mantels range from $12.00 upwards. The carving on these mantels is something marvellous, and shows that the skilled hands of a workman gifted with artistic genius has had the work in hand. One of the mantels is really worth traveling miles to see—at least we believe any lover of the useful and the beautiful combined will think so. It is made of Italian marble cut in unique designs, and finished with the most exquisite taste. That mantel alone would make the reputation of the house.

Mr. Wallace also exhibits the Pendulum grate. This grate is one of most simple inventions, and yet for that reason is all the better. It cannot get out of order as long as the grate holds together. A couple of turns of the lever-handle will clear the grate of refuse ashes and brighten up the fire, and yet there is no dust, as the fire is stirred from underneath and the ashes fall directly into the pan. This grate can be used, however, without the pendulum attachment, and is then just like an ordinary grate. The crowds gathering around the stand yesterday seemed to be much interested in it and to heartily endorse it. These mantels and grates are for sale at Mr. Wallace's warehouse, No. 321 Liberty street.

GRAY, THE PAINTER.

Mr. John T. Gray, the sign painter of No. 54 Ninth street, has a specimen of his skill on exhibition, which simply "carries the bells." It can be seen hung up at the right of the dining hall. It is a large glass sign, with fancy gold letters of the most intricate workmanship. One wonders how a brush was ever made to get around the corners and to follow out the delicate tracey around some of the fine lines. At the two ends of the sign there are four small oval mirrors set in the sign, and giving back the reflection of the beholder. The sign makes an impression at the first glance, but the more it is examined the higher rises the admiration for the artistic works. It is really the most unique and perfect specimen of lettering and design in general that we have ever seen. Mr. Gray has long enjoyed a reputation as a knight of the brush and paint pot far an advance of his competors, and this sign adds largely to his fame. It is not the work of a skilled mechanic merely, but the work of an artist, who loves his trade and is inspired by love of it to make his last work always his best. That is the secret of his success—a sucess which he pre-eminently deserves. This sign of Gray's is the "Signs of the Times," indicating that Pittsburgh workmen understand their business.

S. S. MARSHALL & CO.

One of the displays which attracts universal attention is that made by Messrs. S. S. Marshall & Bros., of No. 62 Cedar avenue, Allegheny. This firm is engaged in the manufacture of stained, enameled and embossed glass. It is composed of young and energetic gentlemen, who have a thoroughly practical knowledge of their business in every detail. They are really masters of the art, and as they always personally supervise the work from their manufactory, every job is well done. They have put up a few samples of their work on the north gallery, in a place where it can be seen from below, so that it is conspicuous from nearly every point in the house. It is a beautiful display. The designs are very neat and chaste, and the coloring rich and happily harmonized. These designs embrace those made for churches, private dwellings and public halls, and show a fine variety and range of work, with delicacy of taste and neat workmanship that stamps it all as the production from a first-class manufactory.

"SPEER'S PLOW."

That's what everybody calls it. It is placed just at the north side of the east stair case, on the main floor. It is the plow manufactured at the works of Messrs. Alexander Speer & Sons, which was exhibited at the Paris Exposition in 1867, and took the bronze medal. It is a superb specimen workmanship. It is an iron cast steel plow, with heavy silver plate on the working parts. Everything about it is finely finished, showing that the highest skill of the workmen was employed in perfecting it. It is brightly polished and shines like a mirror. The woodwork about it is painted and varnished in rich colors, and between the handles there is an iron brace of a fanciful oval pattern filled in with vine work. The plow stands in a pedestal, the covering of which is velvet. Farmers and those who know what a good plow is, are enthusiastic over it. They say it is not only a splendid specimen of artistic workmanship, but it exhibits all the points of a good plow, and that in use it would give as much satisfaction as it does as a thing of ornament.

A HOUSEHOLD ILLUMINATOR.

The visitor to the Exposition, especially one who enters by the Central entrance in the evening, will be attracted at once by the brilliancy of the room almost directly opposite him, and will naturally desire to know why that part of the building is so much brighter than any other place. A walk across the building will explain matters. The light is produced by the gas manufactured in the Coleman Gas Machine, a patent apparatus which has been before the public for several years, has given satisfaction wherever used, and is rapidly rising in popular favor. A brief description of this machine—which is one of the great features of the Exposition—may not be out of place just here.

The machine has one quality at the outstart which recommends it—and that is its extreme simplicity. It can be understood and managed, after a little instruction, by a child of ordinary intelligence. There is no complicated machinery about it, and it is hardly possible for it to get out of order. It consists of a carbureter, in which the gas is made, an air pump or blower, and weights for driving the pump. These weights are made so as to be wound up. This is absolutely all the machinery there is about it, and as long as the iron holds out the machine is good.

The manner of making the gas is equally simply. It is made from gasoline,—a product of petroleum, which is very cheap and can be had in large or small quantities at all times. The carbureter is first buried in the ground some six or eight feet deep, and as far from the house as is desired—generally from 40 to 100 feet. The gasoline is placed in the carbureter;—and when it is filled the supply is sufficient to supply gas to light up an ordinary dwelling for a year. When the carbureter is thus filled, the weights are wound up, this being done once a week. The weights cause the pump or blower to work. Its action draws the air through a number of buckets, and from there the air passes through pipes into the carbureter. The air then passes through a series of pans, sub-divided into compartments, containing wicking, and by this means the material which produces the gas is lifted to the top of the carbureter, just as the oil in a lamp is forced up the wick in a burner. The gas thus produced is conveyed by pipes from the carbureter to the building, as it is wanted, and throught the building to the various fixtures, in the same manner as ordinary gas.

This is the whole process; and yet simple and comparatively inexpensive as it is, there is produced by it a gas that gives a more brilliant light than the gas from coal, and one that is in other ways preferable.

Then as to the light produced, it has an advantage over coal gas, in that it makes a more brilliant, yet steady and softer light—one that is better to read or write by, and is not injurious or blinding to the eyes. This is one af its greatest advantages, and one that is of incalculable importance to persons having much work to do by artificial light.

It is also produced at less expense than coal gas. Its cost, compared with coal, is about two-thirds less than the latter, and when the quantity of light given by any one burner is taken into account, in comparison with a kerosene lamp, there is but little doubt of its being the cheapest light in the market.

The first advantage of this process is its perfect safety. The carbureter being located away from the house, there is no possibility of an accident from explosion. In this respect it is really safer than having a meter in the house, for they are liable to get out of order, and sometimes create trouble. In another respect this gas is superior to that from coal gas. It contains nothing injurious to health, and if a pipe leaks or a burner is by mistake left open in the bedroom, there is no danger from its inhalation. To breathe coal gas, however, is to be suffocated.

So its advantages are a safe machine, pure gas, a steadier, soft yet, brilliant light, and yet at a trifling expense—less than any other method of illuminating. To some persons, these may seem like strong claims, but they have been substantiated by the practical use of the machine. It is now no longer an experiment. It has been before the public for several years. It has been used in public and private houses throughout the country, and the uniform testimony is one of satisfaction and pleasure. The best test is its use, and there is on record the unqualified testimony of several hundred householders who are now daily enjoying its advantages.

The "Coleman Gas Machine" is manufactured exclusively by Messrs. Tate, Munden & Tate, the plumbers and gas fitters, No. 313 Liberty street, Pittsburgh. The fact that this old reliable and enterprising firm endorse and manufacture it is a solid guarantee of its excellence. This firm has a reputation which fixes the standing of everything they recommend. They can furnish the machine at a comparatively small cost considering its great advantages, and they guarantee it to work satisfactorily. The visitor to the Exposition has an ocular demonstration of its excellence, and if any further information is desired it can be obtained by application to Messrs. Tate, Munden & Tate, either at the Exposition, or at 313 Liberty street, this city.

CITY FINANCES.

Proposed Redemption of Bonds—Stringency in the Water Committee—The New Street Districts Approved.

Subsequent to the session of Select Council yesterday afternoon the Finance Committee held a meeting in the office of the City Controller, Mr. John Shipton in the chair.

The ordinances dividing the city into four street districts, abolishing the Road Committee and devolving its duties upon the Street Committee, the substance of both of which we have already published, were affirmatively recommended to Councils.

The bond of Jonas Smith, weighmaster on Penn avenue, in the Twentieth ward, was approved, and the Controller was directed to notify Henry Earle, weighmaster in the Sixth ward, that he also would be required to file a bond. The receipts of Mr. Earle are not very large, and the Controller stated that he had been making returns but not paying in any money.

The Sinking Fund ordinance, vetoed by the Mayor, and referred to this committee by Select Council, as noted elsewhere, was committed to a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Aiken, Brown and Glass to prepare a new ordinance for presentation to Councils next Monday.

A statement of the condition of the finances of the old Water Committee was presented, and Mr. Brown, chairman of that committee, said that it would require $15,097, in addition to what they now have, to pay the expenses of the works to the end of the year. It was patent to the committee that the money would have to be raised in some way, and as a preliminary measure the Controller was directed to prepare and submit at the next meeting an account of the balances of all the appropriations.

A discussion next arose upon the expediency of calling in and paying off bonds to the amount of the Sinking Fund. The Wallace bill requires that the bonds shall be redeemed in the order of the date of their issue, but a large majority of the holders of some of the bonds are not disposed to turn them in. They do not mature for several years yet, they draw a comfortable rate of interest and are considered an investment worth holding until maturity. The Controller stated that he knew where about $17,000 in compromise railroad bonds are held in Europe, and he thought they could be obtained for less than their face. As pertinent to the matter, and disposing of it for the time being, Mr. Aiken offered the following, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the City Controller and Chairman of the Finance Committee be instructed to inquire into the expediency of calling bonds in to the amount of ——— dollars and paying the same out of the Sinking Fund, and report to an adjourned meeting of this committee.

A number of petitions for abatement of assessments and tax exonerations were referred to the City Engineer and Attorney, after which the committee adjourned.

CRIME IN THE CITY.

Brief Mention of Minor Offenses and Petty Criminalities.

JAMES RAGAN yesterday appeared before 'Squire McMasters and charged Wm. Dobbins with assault and battery. Dobbins was committed to jail in default of $500 bail.

THOMAS WRIGHT and Peter Doyle, charged with assault upon officer Robinson, had a hearing yesterday before Acting Mayor Butler, and in default of $500 bail each were committed for trial.

Yesterday afternoon Alderman Butler held James Wright and Peter Boyle for appearance before court on a charge of aggravated assault and battery. These were the men, it will be remembered, who a few nights since attacked and beat Patrolman Robinson, on Washington street.

Advice to Our Readers.

When you visit the Exposition don't fail to call at Mr. H. J. Adams' Shirt and Furnishing Goods House, 98 Fifth avenue, opposite the Postoffice, Pittsburgh. Three years ago Mr. Adams came from New York City to Pittsburgh a stranger. To-day his is the store for stylish goods and "way down prices." Everybody goes there for Shirts and Furnishing Goods.

His Shirts always fit and wear. Think of the following prices:

Good White Shirts	75c. to $2.50
Fancy Shirts	50c. to $2.50
Gents', Ladies' and Boys' Undershirts and Drawers	25c. to $5.00
Wool Socks	20c. to 75c.
Knit Jackets	75c. to $10.
Woolen Cloth Gloves	20c. to $1.50
Lined Kid Gloves	75c. to $2.00
Buck Gloves	50c. to $1.75
Suspenders	20c. to $2.00

Every variety of Gents', Ladies' and Boys' Furnishing Goods, at similar greatly reduced prices.

Notice Mr. Adams' display of Shirts and Furnishing Goods at the "Exposition."

Soda Water at the Exposition.

Messrs. McClarran & McKennan furnish the soda water to the visitors at the Exposition. They have made preparations to meet all demands; they have put up one of the finest fountains ever seen in the city, and from this the thirsty multitude can have their thirst assuaged. To-day will be a grand day for the juveniles. Don't let them run around thirsty when the supply of the cooling and palatable beverage is so abundant. Remember the great $7,000 Soda Water Fountain is just west of the Floral Department, in the centre of the building. The soda water is made out of the pure articles, and is of the best character and worthy of the Exposition. Take your friends and take a quaff of a beverage that cheers but does not inebriate.

JAS. MILLIKEN & CO.,
89 Smithfield street.

Mr. Walter Anderson

Has just received another invoice of choice coating, suitable for the new style button up cut-away, for which his house has such a reputation. And we may state in this connection that at the meeting of the Merchant Tailor and Cutter's Association, held in New York last summer, for the purpose of issuing the Fall and Winter styles, the cut-away style designed by Mr. A. was unanimously adopted and now graces the fashion plates displayed in first-class establishments. To those of our readers who want a superior cut garment we would say call at his rooms, No. 1 Fifth Avenue, Diamond Bank building.

CASH! CASH!

Cheap Dry Goods.

We call special attention to our large and carefully selected stock, embracing everything pertaining to a first-class retail house.

By our CASH system we claim to give the best value for the least money. We are now opening some rare bargains in Black Cashmeres, Fancy Dress Goods, Cloaks, Shawls, J. B. HEARD & Co.,
FS&M. 52 Sixth street.

"Cash Prices are the Lowest Prices,"

Is the motto of McFarland, Collins & Co., Carpet Dealers, No 101 Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, for the Fall of 1875. Cash from consumers is the economical, safe and satisfactory principle of trade, and works to the advantage of buyers and sellers alike. In buying from this house for cash, you do not have to contribute to pay other people's bad debts, which the paying customers of a house must do, in one way or another, where a general credit business is done.

Steamship Arrivals Yesterday.

Dispatches received at Max Schamberg's European Steamship, Exchange and Telegraph Office, at 163 Smithfield street, announce the arrival of the steamer Anchoria, (her first trip to America) at New York; steamer Switzerland, at New York; steamer C. F. French, at New York. steamer Ohio at Southampton; steamer Scythia, at Queenstown; steamer Wyoming at Queenstown.

McCord & Co.

would call special attention to their extensive and elegant assortment of Shetland and Alaska seal skin, sacques, boas and muffs just opened, 131 Wood street.

ST. CHARLES HOTEL.

One of Pittsburgh's Solid Institutions—A New Whisp on the Old Handle.

Go where you will, and interrogate your fellow-traveler as to where in Pittsburgh good cheer can be found, and the answer comes readily, "Why, sir, at the St. Charles Hotel, corner of Wood street and Third avenue." He who has gained a reputation for early rising can afford to lie abed until eleven o'clock, and Messrs. Chalfant & Co., in assuming proprietorship of the St. Charles, could have justly presumed on its former solid reputation and moved on in the even tenor of their way, without adding to their expenditures, but they chose rather to incur a heavy outlay in refitting, repairing, refurnishing and remodeling this already popular house, believing that a discriminating public would appreciate their efforts, which has been the case, as the increase in patronage fully attests. The St. Charles, as now managed, knows no superior in first-class accommodations, excellence of fare, cleanliness and comfort of rooms, ready attention of servants, and gentlemanly deportment of proprietors. Strangers visiting the city are assured of a warm welcome at the St. Charles, and that their stay will be made as agreeable and comfortable as the most exacting could desire. Do not fear exorbitant rates, as Messrs. Chalfant & Co. are actuated by the principles of live and let live.

SNEAK THIEVES.

They Ransack a House on Fourth Avenue.

Yesterday afternoon the residence of Mr. E. B. Williams, on Fourth avenue, was pretty thoroughly ransacked by sneak-thieves while the family was absent attending the Exposition. The thieves gained entrance through a back window, and must have known that they had plenty of time to do their work, as they succeeded in visiting every room and leaving it in a general muss, pitching the contents of trunks, drawers, etc., upon the floor in a way very disagreeable to order. They carried off a set of jewelry and a valuable ring belonging to A. K. Hanna, who was rooming at the house, the jewelry and ring together being valued at about $75. They also took a few small articles of value belonging to Mr. Williams' family, including a number of keepsakes, but strangely enough they threw upon the floor and left lying there a bag of gold and silver coin, perhaps not expecting to find hard money in this paper money era. As usual there is no clue to the identity of the perpetrators.

The Maintenance of Health.

The maintenance of health is often more difficult than its recovery. Vitiated conditions of the atmosphere, unhealthy occupations, extremes of heat or cold, and constant exposure to rough weather, are all so many provocations of disease. There is but one sure way of effectually guarding the system when thus subjected to influences prejudicial to health, and that is to establish, by judicious tonic and alterative medication, vigor of the body and regularity of its functions. The properties of an invigorant and corrective are happily combined in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which, at the same time that it infuses unwonted vitality into the system, overcomes all tendency of the stomach, liver, bowels and urinary organs to deviate from regularity in the discharge of functions upon which the welfare of the entire physical organization is dependent. Health cannot be more effectually maintained than by using the Bitters.

PUBLIC REPORT OF A POLICEMAN.

I have not enjoyed good health for several years past, yet have not allowed it to interfere with my labor. Every one belonging to the laboring class knows the inconvenience of being obliged to labor when the body, from debility, almost refuses to perform its daily task. I never was a believer in dosing with medicines; but, having heard the VEGETINE spoken of so highly, was determined to try it, and shall never regret that determination. As a tonic (which every one needs at some time) it surpasses anything I ever heard of. It invigorates the whole system; it is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood. There are many of my acquaintances who have taken it, and all unite in praise of its satisfactory effect.

Especially among the aged class of people, it imparts to them the one thing most needful in old age—nights of calm, sweet repose, thereby strengthening the mind as well as the body. One aged lady who has been suffering through life from Scrofula, and has become blind from its effects, having tried many remedies with no favorable results, was induced by friends to try the VEGETINE. After taking a few bottles, she obtained such great relief that she expressed a wish for her sight, that she might be able to look upon the man who had sent her such a blessing.

Yours respectfully,
O. H. P. HODGE, Police Officer, Station 6.
BOSTON, Mass., May 9, 1871.

HEARTFELT PRAYER.

ST. PAUL, August 22, 1864.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ.

Dear Sir—I should be wanting in gratitude, if I failed to acknowledge what the VEGETINE has done for me. I was attacked about eleven months since with Bronchitis, which settled into Consumption. I had night sweats and fever chills; was distressed for breath, and frequently spit blood; was all emaciated, very weak, and so low that my friends thought my case hopeless.

I was advised to make a trial of the VEGETINE, which, under the providence of God, has cured me. That he may bless the use of your medicine to others, as he has to me, and that his divine grace may attend you, is the heartfelt prayer of your admiring, humble servant,

BENJAMIN PETTINGILL.

P. S.—Mine is but one among the many cures your medicine has effected in this alace. B. P.

MAKE IT PUBLIC.

SOUTH BOSTON, Feb. 9, 1871.

H. R. STEVENS, ESQ.:

Dear Sir—I have heard from very many sources of the great success of VEGETINE in cases of Scrofula, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Catarrh and other diseases of kindred nature. I make no hesitation in saying that I know VEGETINE to be the most reliable remedy for Catarrh and General Debility.

My wife has been troubled with Catarrh for many years, and at times very badly. She has thoroughly tried every supposed remedy that we could hear of, and with all this she has for several years been gradually growing worse, and the discharge from the head was excessive and very offensive.

She was in this condition when she commenced to take VEGETINE. I could see that she was improving on the second bottle. She continued taking the VEGETINE until she had used from twelve to fifteen bottles. I am now happy in informing you and the public (if you choose to make it public) that she is entirely cured, and VEGETINE accomplished the cure after nothing else would. Hence I feel justified in saying that VEGETINE is the most reliable remedy, and would advise all suffering humanity to try it for I believe it to be a good, honest, vegetable medicine, and I shall not hesitate to recommend it.

I am, &c., respectfully,
L. C. CARDELL,
Store 451 Broadway.

VEGETINE acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cleanses and cures ulceration, cures constipation, and regulates the bowels.

Has Entirely Cured Me.

BOSTON, October, 1870.

MR. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—My daughter, after having a severe attack of whooping cough, was left in a feeble state of health. Being advised by a friend she tried the VEGETINE, and after using a few bottles was fully restored to health.

I have been a great sufferer from Rheumatism. I have taken several bottles of the VEGETINE for this complaint, and am happy to say it has entirely cured me. I have recommended the VEGETINE to others, with the same good results. It is a great cleanser and purifier of the blood; it is pleasant to take, and I can cheerfully recommend it.
